PRICE TWO CENTS

SENATE WILL HAVE MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS

Expected that Clear Margin of Two or Three To-gas Will Be of Jeffersonian Party

WILSON GETS 442 VOTES

Wyoming Added by Narrow Lead to Governor's Electoral College Total

PROGRESSIVES A FACTOR

Expected that Bull Moosers Will Be Made Minority of Important Committees

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—With returns complete today, although unofficial, it became certain that Wilson's total vote in the next electoral college would be 442 with 77 for Roosevelt and 12 for Taft. Wyoming went into the Wilson column today and although some progressive leaders were still claiming they would get California impartial sources insisted that the districts that were still missing were all in different localities and were sure to increase the Wilson vote.

Control of the senate seemed certainly democratic. The sure democratic senators would number 48, one-half of the total membership, and this would give a democratic vice president the deciding vote in case of a tie. But there were states to be heard from where the result was still doubtful, notably Illinois, where the returns changed the legislative total with each report.

Expect Clear Margin
The democratic leaders at headquarters were confident that they would get two and possibly three of the remaining states, thus giving them a clear working margin required for the proposed legislative program.

The Roosevelt states today were Pennsylvania, Washington and South Dakota and Michigan; the Taft, Vermont, Utah and Idaho.

The states where the result is in doubt, with a senatorship hanging on the outcome, were Illinois, Michigan, Wyoming, Tennessee and Oregon. The democratic leaders seemed very confident from the advices received here that they would get the senators from Wyoming, Oregon and Tennessee.

Much interest was expressed today in the political affiliations of the progressives in the house and in the various states where they sent men to the legislature. For instance, it was pointed out that in Illinois the progressive legislators could combine with the democrats and elect a United States senator to succeed Senator Cullom.

Whether they would vote for James Hamilton Lewis, the leading democratic aspirant, however, was a question. In Michigan the democrats and progressives were believed likely to combine.

Progressives Minority
In congress it was said the democrats would be expected by the progressive leader to assign minority reports on the house committees to the progressives elected. President Wilson will be asked to name progressives as the minority members of all commissions and boards that he is compelled to fill and whose authorization laws provide for minority as well as majority representation. All this is certain to bring about numerous complications.

Illinois Wilson's by 13,855
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Complete returns, although not official, from Illinois, give President-elect Wilson a plurality of 13,855 in the state. The total vote was: Wilson, 493,416; Roosevelt, 389,561; Taft, 255,695.

For governor, Dunne, democrat 406,295; Denen, republican, 295,639; Funk, progressive, 277,886.

The complexion of the next legislature which will elect a United States senator, changes almost every hour with the arrival of belated returns from down state counties.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Complete but unofficial returns from 18 counties and partial returns from the other three indicate that Wilson has carried the state by a plurality of 894.

The complete returns from 18 counties give Wilson 12,414; Taft 11,589; Roosevelt 5,471; Debs 449.

THINK AMERICANS ARE HELD AS SPIES

KANSAS City, Mo., Nov. 8.—Geo. T. Meyers, president of the Kansas City Aero club and other friends of John Watts, the American pilot of the balloon Dusseldorf in the international race, believe that Watts and his aide, Arthur Atherholt, are being held in Russia as spies. Mrs. Watts, it is said is prostrated, as she has not heard from her husband since a four word cable was received last week.

FOUR GUNMEN GO TO TRIAL TODAY

Alleged Actual Slayers of Rosenthal Fighting Attempt to Put Them with Becker

WILL TRY TO PROVE ALIBI

Defense Will Be that They Did not Participate in the Murder

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—With Police Lieutenant Charles Becker in the death house at Sing Sing prison, as the brains behind the assassin of Gambler Herman Rosenthal, the state took up today the task of sending to join him the alleged actual instruments in the crime.

With Justice Goff on the bench, District Attorney Whitman, in the extraordinary criminal term of the supreme court, moved the trial of Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," Louis Rosenberg, alias "Lefty Louie," Frank Crocifoli, alias "Dago Frank," and Frank Muller, alias "Whitey Lewis." They are alleged to be the gunmen from the Jack Zelig gang who, at the behest of Becker, and direct command of "Bridgie" Weber and Jack Rose, went to the Metropole hotel called Rosenthal outside early on July 16, and shot him to death.

It was admitted that much of the evidence would be the same as was produced in the Becker case. True to gang ethics the four elected to go to trial together under the motto: "One for all and all for one," and Whitman said before court opened that he would not oppose their desire.

Former Magistrate Wahle, counsel for the quartet, said that he would not disclose his defense until the state's case was complete. He insisted, however, that he had many surprises up his sleeve, and that he would show that the four accused, notwithstanding the identification of half a dozen witnesses, were not participants in the murder.

Because it had been found impossible to finish a murder trial in which Justice Goff was sitting last night as had been hoped, it was decided at 10:30 that the gun men's trial would have to go over until tomorrow. There was a possibility that it might be reached by afternoon but this possibility was slight.

OHIO LEAD BIG

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from 82 out of 88 counties in the state today gave Wilson a plurality over Taft of 125,660. Wilson's plurality over Roosevelt is 177,540. The figures showed that Cox, democrat, for governor, led Wilson by about 25,000.

OKLAHOMA RE-ELECTS SOLONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 8.—Oklahoma's two republican congressmen have been re-elected, complete returns showed today. Dick T. Morgan has a plurality of 770. Bird S. McGuire, First district, was also re-elected. The six others elected are democrats.

BOY WHO ATTACKED GIRL SENTENCED

Bestor Swanger, the fifteen year old boy accused of attempting a criminal assault on Lillian Lord, the eight year old daughter of Lorin Lord three miles north of West Salem last Friday as she was on her way home from the Walker district school, was sentenced to the state industrial school at Waukesha, by Judge John Brindley in county court yesterday. The boy who is the son of a farmer living eighteen miles north of West Salem near Melrose admitted taking indecent liberties with the little girl but denied that he had attempted criminal assault. The girl was accompanied by her small brother Myran at the time she was attacked. The story told by the children to their mother resulted in Sheriff Chris Burns and a posse of deputies making a trip to the Swanger farm in an automobile the next day where the youth was arrested.

BREATHING SPELL IN BOARD FIGHT

Both Factions Seek Information from the State Tax Commission

WOULD INCREASE CITY SHARE

Kindly Questions Keizer's Right to Double Assessment on Some Property

A breathing spell was called in the annual fight of the board of equalization late last night, pending the arrival of information from the state tax commission relative to the true value of merchandise and manufacturers' stock in La Crosse county.

John Kindly, leader of the city faction and V. S. Keppel, leader of the county faction, both wrote to the state tax commission stating the situation regarding the controversy which has been caused by the increase of the assessment of merchandise by $2,000,000.

Mr. Kindly inclosed letters from two of the largest firms in La Crosse in which they assert that the doubling of the original assessment will mean the placing of their merchandise stock at 170 per cent of its true value. Both of these firms were assessed at over $200,000.

In view of the fact that nearly all of this class of property is in the city it practically means that the true value of the city property has been increased over $2,000,000 or that the city's share of the county tax will be two per cent higher and the country share two per cent lower.

Mr. Kindly says that Income Tax Assessor J. E. Keizer is responsible for the doubling of the assessment on this class of property and has asked the commission to decide whether or not he has the right to do so.

ARMED POLICE AFTER BURGLARS

Two Expeditions Made to Capture Spring Valley Bandits; Burglary at Bagley

Armed with long range rifles, Chief of Police John Webber and a squad of detectives from central police station made a hurried automobile trip to La Crescent, Minn., this morning in the hope of capturing three bandits who blew open a safe at Spring Valley, Minn., last night and escaped with $45.

Words were received here at headquarters today from Sheriff Brud of Preston, Minn., of the burglary and that three men had been seen boarding a stock train bound for La Crosse, who were thought to be the burglars.

Chief Webber immediately left for La Crescent to intercept the burglars and Captain Larry Dugan accompanied by police, all thoroughly armed, hurried to the north side but both expeditions proved useless.

Details relative to the burglary at Spring Valley are lacking but the entire police force has been warned to keep a close lookout for the men. Reports were also received of an attempted burglary at Bagley, Wis., last night which was foiled.

PASSENGERS ARE SAFE

FIVE HUNDRED STEERAGE FOLK ON ROYAL GEORGE ARE LANDED SAFELY FROM THE WRECK

QUEBEC, Que., Nov. 8.—All the passengers from the liner Royal George, stranded ten miles east of Quebec arrived here on the C. P. R. tug cruiser and the ferryboat pilot at noon today. They number about 500. The tugs trying to pull the vessel off have so far failed but a last night swung her around, and a near panic took place on board. The vessel seemed to be held by rocks in the center and on this she turned like a pivot. The officials are hopeful that they can get the ship off at high tide tonight.

CASE IS DISMISSED

The case against Supervisor W. E. Stratman, of the town of Barre who was accused by City Sealer Eugene Derr of selling onions underweight a little more than a week ago, was dismissed by Judge John Brindley in county court today on a motion by District Attorney James Thompson. The case was dismissed on the grounds that there was no proof of short weight dealing by Supervisor Stratman.

PLANS TO PUT HOUSE IN BAD

Taft Working on Message Asking Big Legislative Action by Congress at Once

THE TIME IS INSUFFICIENT

Republicans Will Then Lay Blame for Failure to Pass Bills on the Democrats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—What he wants from congress this coming session—the last session of his administration—and what he will actually get, were the questions which President Taft wrestled with today when he began the active work of mapping out his annual message.

The president plans to make his forthcoming message a "clean up" of all legislation advocated by the republicans—a resumption of the policies for which his administration has stood and which as yet remain unacted upon. With only 57 actual working days (exclusive of Wednesdays) which by the house rules are devoted to consideration of special calendar bills, the president realizes that the coming session will probably not attempt enactment of any general legislation. It will take every moment of the legislators' time to pass the sixteen routine appropriation bills.

Shift Blame to Congress
But Taft will shift to congress responsibility for a legislative plan of enormous magnitude. Failures by congress to adopt that program will give the republicans their opportunity to lay blame on the house.

The president told members of his cabinet today that he proposed to follow his plan last year in submitting one general message when congress convenes and following with special supplementary messages enlarging on the topics discussed in the annual document.

Taft and his official family made no attempt to conceal their belief that a special session of congress will be called soon after March 4, by President Wilson. All official Washington expects it.

Among the plans which he will submit, President Taft indicated today that he would propose immediate cuts on certain tariff products.

The president has been informed that democratic leaders in the house will not attempt tariff reform this winter, leaving such legislation for the executive session. For this reason the executive desires to make the tariff section of his message a complete statement of the republican attitude on that separate section.

The president indicated he will recommend: Supplementary legislation to the Sherman anti-trust law and a reserve corporation tax law. A new passport and trade treaty with Russia. Workmen's compensation and industrial insurance act. Adoption of a new code for the federal judiciary to expedite justice and yet protect litigants.

Restoration of a non-partisan tariff commission.

Continuance of the economy and efficiency commission.

Protection and extension of civil service. A retirement scheme for superannuated government employees. Adoption of the "budget system" of appropriations. Extension of the parcels post. Appropriations for an extra new battleship this winter and three annually hereafter. Fortification and opening of the Panama canal with a law permitting foreign nations to appeal to the supreme court from the "tolls" concessions given American coastwise vessels.

An international investigation of the high cost of living. Development of Alaska. Ship subsidy with registration for vessels to increase that American marine. Creation of a navy and army reserve with increase of infantry and cavalry. Protection of health and property of Indians. Purchase of homes abroad for American diplomats.

Some time during this session, it was learned today, Taft proposes to incorporate in a message a complete record of the constructive achievements of the republican administration.

T. R. BACK AT WORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—For the first time in six weeks, Col. Roosevelt returned to his offices at The Outlook today and plunged into editorial work and correspondence. The colonel greeted the newspaper men with: "I have nothing to say."

NAME COLOR AFTER WILSON'S DAUGHTER

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—After Alice Blue, Helen Pink, Nell Rose, will be the prevailing color for ultra-fashionables this winter, the new color having been launched here today by a large department store in honor of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, daughter of the president-elect. Miss Wilson's personal mission was obtained after the new shade was submitted to her and approved. It is nearer the American beauty tint than any other.

COMMITTEE PLANS A SEAL CAMPAIGN

Tuberculosis Association to Raise Money to Pay School Nurse's Salary

100,000 SEALS RECEIVED

Will Be Placed on Sale in Near Future; Strong Committee Is Named

The City Tuberculosis committee, consisting of representatives of the various civic associations of La Crosse held its annual meeting at the city hall last night for the purpose of laying plans for the annual seal campaign which is carried on to raise money to hire the school nurse. A committee was appointed to take charge of the campaign consisting of L. F. Easton, Mrs. W. R. Finch, Mrs. George W. Lueck, J. L. Utermoehl, Dr. J. M. Furstman and Rev. George R. Longbrake. On motion of Dr. Furstman an auditing committee was appointed to go over the financial condition of the association as follows: John Kindly, Rev. Ambrose Murphy and Dr. H. E. Wolfe.

The report of Miss Alice Pattee, the school nurse, for the year was read and placed on file. The report will be published later. Dr. J. M. Furstman, in reporting on the work of the visiting nurse, declared that although the city council is in favor of the work of the nurse, it is impossible to pay her salary from city funds. He added, however, that if the committee was unable to raise the entire amount needed the council would probably make up the deficit.

One hundred thousand seals have been received by the city committee from the state committee and a campaign will be begun at once to place them on sale. It has always been possible to raise sufficient money by the sale of Christmas seals to pay the salary of the nurse and it is the hope of the committee that no difficulty in disposing of the seals will be met this year.

WILSON ELECTION CALL OF PEOPLE

La Follette Declares Land-slide Is Voice of the Land Demanding Justice

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, in "La Follette's Weekly Magazine," today points out that the election of Gov. Wilson was a call from the progressive people of the country who were "oppressed and heart sick, demanding plain, simple justice and striving for educational, plain and industrial democracy."

"What of the next four years?" asked Senator La Follette. "First of all there must be legislative achievement of a high order if the will of the people as voices in this election is to prevail. Progressives, irrespective of party, will support and sustain Mr. Wilson if he aids aggressively in freeing the house majority from its shackles."

"Meanwhile it is given the progressive republicans everywhere to hold the high ground of disinterested, patriotic guardianship of the principles which are in a state and union, gradually restoring the government to the people."

NEED OFFICIAL COUNT

VOTES CAST BY MAIL MAY SETTLE KANSAS RACE FOR GOVERNOR—BOTH CLAIM LEAD

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 8.—An official count, including the votes cast by mail, will be necessary to settle the race for governor in Kansas. With unofficial returns from all of 105 counties early today, the managers for Arthur Capper, republican, claimed a lead of 1,000. On the same returns the democrats claimed a plurality of 1,500 for Hedges. It is estimated that the mail votes will likely run 3,000. These votes will be counted today and will play a big part in settling the dispute.

Wilson's plurality is placed at 15,000 without the mail vote, and Mr. Thompson, the democrat, has been elected United States senator over Gov. Stubbs, republican, by the same plurality.

WILSON LEADS IN OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Complete but unofficial returns from all 85 Ohio counties today show that a total popular vote of 997,372 was cast for president in Tuesday's election. Of this Wilson received 404,331; Taft 272,837; Roosevelt 210,204 and the minor parties, including the socialists, prohibition and socialist-labor, 110,000.

SAYS MARQUARD STOLE HIS WIFE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 8.—Joseph Kane, vaudeville star today swore out a warrant for Rubie Marquard, pitcher of the New York Giants and now elevating the stage, charging him with alienating the affections of his wife, known in vaudeville as Blossom Zeley.

Marquard and Miss Zeley, as she pretends to be known, have been appearing in a vaudeville sketch. When they started Kane was in the sketch but he and his wife quarrelled in New York and he left the caste. He came today and got the warrant but the Rubie could not be found by officers and it was reported that he had gone back to New York.

M'GOVERN CARRIES MOST OF COUNTIES

Governor Wins Out in 53 as Against 18 Carried by Judge Karel

HIS LEAD NOW REACHES 5,194

Practically Complete Returns Show Republican Candidate Safely Elected

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Practically complete returns today from nearly all the 71 counties of the state showed that Governor F. E. McGovern carried fifty-three counties as compared with 18 carried by Judge Karel, his democratic opponent.

The count at noon stood as follows: McGovern, 159,098; Karel, 153,904, a lead of 5,194 for McGovern.

Woodrow Wilson's plurality with practically complete returns today is 37,500 over Taft. Roosevelt polled less than 55,000.

Returns early today still further increased the lead of Governor McGovern, re-elected over Judge John C. Karel, democrat. The count: Wilson, 146,131; Taft, 108,630; Roosevelt, 52,080.

U. S. CROP REPORT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A special crop report issued by the department of agriculture this afternoon made the following estimates: Corn—Yield per acre 29.3 bushels, compared with 23.9 last year and 26.7 ten year average. Total production, 3,169,137,000 against 2,531,488,000 last year. Price of corn per bushel on November 1, .58 cents compared with 64.7 cents last year. Percentage of 1911 crop on farms November 1, 1912, 2.6 per cent (64,764,000 bushels) against 4.3 per cent of the 1910 crop last year and 3.80 the ten year average. Corn quality compared with 10 year average 101.1.

Wheat—Weight per measured bushel, 58.3 pounds as against 57.8 last year and 57.7 the ten year average. Price per bushel November 1, 83.3 cents against 91.5 last year.

Oats—Weight per measured bushel, 33.0 pounds against 31.1 last year and 31.1 ten year average. Price per bushel November 1, 33.6 cents compared with 43.8 cents last year.

IDAHO CLOSE STATE

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 8.—It may require the official count to determine the issue between Wilson and Taft in Idaho. Returns from four-fifths of the precincts in the state indicate that Wilson has carried it. They give Taft 30,241; Wilson, 29,709; Roosevelt, 14,628. The precincts which have not yet reported are declared to be heavily democratic. Haines, republican, for governor, is elected.

ARRESTED SIXTH TIME

Sever Johnson was arrested for the sixth time this year last night, when he was locked up at central police station for alleged drunkenness and begging. Johnson has served two sentences in the county jail this year.

POOR CHILDREN IN NEED OF CLOTHING

The advent of the colder weather in La Crosse has caused a sudden demand for aid from the associated charities according to a statement by Miss Winnifred Salisbury, agent of the local organization today. "There are thirty-one children in the city in need of shoes, clothing and underwear," she said, "and unless the philanthropists of the city come to our assistance there will be much suffering when winter arrives. We are in need of all kinds of clothing and supplies and anyone desiring to contribute may do so by calling me at the office of the associated charities in the court house or with Superintendent D. C. Dewey at the City Mission, 325 Jay street. We have no wagon to send out this year but if the donor is unable to bring the things down to the mission we will send a boy after them."

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Since the Balkan war broke out the danger of a general European struggle has never seemed so great as today.

Though Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander, was quoted that he would fight to the last ditch his boast was considered here as an attempt to delay an outburst of rage against the government whose inefficiency

U. S. Warships Sent
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—President Taft today ordered the battleships Tiesse and Montana to sail at once to the Mediterranean for the protection of American missionaries and educators at Beirut and Smyrna. The American ambassador at Constantinople had been ordered to confer with his European colleagues to take any measures that may be necessary if any conditions of turbulence affecting the safety of foreigners in Turkey should arise.

and corruption have ruined the country. More reliable information was that the Turks had asked the Bulgarians for terms of surrender of Constantinople and that the Bulgarians had replied it must be surrendered unconditionally.

That the Turks' capital will fall within a few hours was deemed certain. The European international crisis will then be at hand.

The Austrian government has massed a large force of troops along the southern frontier and stands ready to hurl them into the allies' territory at a moment's notice. Russia, backing the allies, has just announced its intention of keeping its army in place until spring, practically placing its men on a war footing.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—That the Bulgarians have captured most of the forts which constitute Constantinople's last line of reserve was persistently reported here today on the strength of messages from Sofia and Belgrade.

Furious fighting has been in progress for several hours along the Chatalja line, it was certain. Just what the situation was early today was doubtful however.

Only one thing seemed sure—that Constantinople's fall was a matter of only a day or two. That a massacre of Christians will immediately follow the crowning Turkish defeat seemed more likely with every development.

The assertion that Adrianople had surrendered still rested today on the sole authority of the London Daily Mail's correspondent, C. E. Hands, at Bucharest. It was not generally believed. Athens authorities continued to insist that the Greeks have taken Salonika, though this report was also denied from Constantinople, while the Sofia and Belgrade governments said they had not heard of it. Yesterday's claims from Belgrade that the Servians had taken Monastir, was also thought today to have been unfounded.

It was learned in London news—

YEGGS SCARED OFF AND SAFE SAVED

BARRON, Wis., Nov. 8.—Yeggs men made a bold but unsuccessful attempt to blow the postoffice safe here early this morning. Entrance was gained by forcing a rear window. Blankets and rugs, taken from several barns two blocks away, were used to deaden the noise of the explosion. A hole had been drilled in the door but before they were able to go further the robbers probably were frightened away. They took a horse from one barn and a buggy from another, going east toward Cameron.

F. R. A. NIGHT IS GREAT SUCCESS

Packed House Sees Good Show Last Night at the Majestic Theater

Last night was F. R. A. night at the Majestic theater, and a packed house testified to the popularity of both the order and the show. The lodge members saw a good show, of which Bert Howard and Effie Lawrence were the leading lights, with an original act—"The Cigar Girl." Mr. Howard, as a piano salesman, tore off large chunks of ragtime melody in fetching style, and Miss Lawrence, the cigar girl, made a hit with a character song and dance. There is a lot of galling-gun repartee in the act, as well as the music.

"The Cycling Peers"—Grey and Peters—came up to their billing in good shape. They performed any number of difficult and laughable stunts on bikes, and received a good hand at the close of their act.

Ferns and Moore call themselves Wizards of Joy. They made a lot of fun last night with ridiculous burlesque of regulation vaudeville stunts, pulled off some very clever dancing as well. Both are singers of class.

James F. Kelly and Emma Pollock came second on the bill. They sang and danced and pulled off jokes with equal ease, and succeeded in getting a good share of applause. The biggest hit of the act was a bit of burlesque in response to an encore, when Mr. Kelly, in the character of a trainer, introduced his partner as "Luke McGuilke, champion 87 pound shadow boxer of the world." Miss Pollock acted just like a regular prize fighter, too.

The show was opened by Biffs De Armo in a unique melange of singing and comedy acrobatics. Both members of the sketch prove to be good at their particular lines of business.

LANSING, IOWA

The foundation for the Glynn cement block factory is about completed and in a few months the building will be finished. The Glyns have done a very good business since starting here, and have several orders now ahead.

A. M. Fellows and sister, Mrs. John Saane, were visitors at the county seat Monday.

C. M. Powell, the tailor, has gone west and his shop is closed. He was accompanied by his daughter Ruth.

T. A. Warren, formerly with Julius Raeth, has opened a tin and repair shop in Village Creek. Mr. Warren purchased a farm at the village from Hans Hanson and has moved from town to his new purchase.

Albert Leyse and wife were here last week from their home in Wisconsin. It has been about twenty-six years since this young man left Lansing and his friends are pleased to know that he is prospering. He is at present postmaster in his town.

The east side of the Clear Creek bridge has been replanked.

Joe Wallace and wife who spent the summer at Heymans, have returned to town to spend the winter.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Stirn gathered at their farm home Saturday evening and spent several hours in dancing. All report an enjoyable time.

M. E. Smith was down from Waukon Monday.

Kill Korndt has removed the scales from John street in Lansing to his farm in Makee township. They were purchased from the city.

Engineer John Sandry of Dubuque is spending the week with his parents on the farm west of town.

Dr. J. W. Davis and wife were absent in Wisconsin for several days visiting relatives.

Frank Dolphin has installed a fifteen horsepower electric motor in the Capoli Button works, to be used to furnish power for the shell crusher.

Bert Strong and wife visited relatives and friends here this week. They had been visiting in Minnesota before coming here and left on Friday for their home in Waterloo, this state, where Mr. Strong has a good position with the Illinois Central railway. He is the owner of several acres of good land in Florida and expects to go south in about two months.

George Davis and wife spent Sunday with relatives here. Mr. Davis is in business in Waukon.

John Verdon, Jr., departed Saturday for St. Paul where he has secured employment.

Mrs. Langrup is very ill at her home in South town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roggensack of West Union spent several days here last week visiting relatives. They came across country in their automobile.

Silas Glynn is suffering from a badly sprained ankle.

Little Ray Towle, son of Station Agent Towle, is very low with typhoid fever.

Veteran A. E. Blanchard who is past eighty years old, is quite feeble now. Mr. Blanchard came to this country in 1851 and has been an honored citizen of Lansing for many years.

Bob Friedrich has returned from Wisconsin where he has spent the past two weeks. In a wrestling match at Sheboygan he threw his man twice very easily.

John Beisel is spending a two weeks' vacation in his house boat in the islands north of town.

The dance given Tuesday night by the base ball boys was a hummer. The hall was crowded and all had a good time.

Thos. Bakewell arrived home from North Dakota the fore part of the week.

NATIONAL FOREST AREA INCREASED

Superior Reserve Is Increased from 910,000 to 1,276,100 Acres by the President

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The president has issued a proclamation making alterations in the Superior National Forests boundaries, the net result of which is to increase the gross area of the Forests from 910,000 to 1,276,100 acres. The corrected boundary includes 380,555 acres of new land, while it eliminates 14,455 acres previously included.

The Superior National Forest lies in the northeastern corner of Minnesota, between Lake Superior and the Canadian line. At present it contains little timber of merchantable size, practically all of the original stand having been removed or destroyed by fire before the National Forest was created. The government is, however, holding and protecting the land for the sake of the future yield of timber which it will produce under forestry methods.

Practically none of the land has any agricultural value, and unless used to grow trees it must remain a mere waste. To grow timber it must be protected from fire. The areas now added are in general character similar to those previously embraced within the Forest, and will be protected and administered along the same lines.

The eliminated portions are made up principally of private holdings and contain too small an amount of land suitable for forest purposes to make it worth while for the government to retain the areas in the forest.

Throughout the Superior forest the percentage of alienated land is heavy, and the same is true of the portions newly included, so that the amount of government owned land added to the forest is much less than the gross area figures would indicate.

Under the proclamation the eliminated lands are withdrawn for classification, following which they will be restored to settlement and entry by the secretary of the interior after such notice as he may deem advisable and as he may determine this course to be compatible with the public interests.

There is one other national forest in Minnesota, called the Minnesota and situated at the headwaters of the Mississippi, about Lake Winnibigoshish. It contains about 295,000 acres, and was created from Chippewa Indian lands after the virgin timber had been cut off under forestry regulations. In consequence it has a much more promising growth of young pine and Norway pine than has the Superior at the present time.

Tells Consumptives How He Got Well

Tuberculosis is said to be curable by simply living in the open air and taking an abundance of fresh eggs and milk. Undoubtedly, some persons are benefited in this way; but the appropriate remedy for Consumption is Eckman's Alternative. Do all you possibly can to add to strength and increase weight; eat wholesome, nourishing food, and breathe the cleanest and purest air there, to the sensible things of right living, add the tonic and beneficial effects of Eckman's Alternative. Read what it did in this case:

405 E. 5th St., Wilmington, Del.
"Gentlemen: In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, one of the leading practitioners, said that it was lung trouble. I took eggs and milk in quantities, but I got very weak. The doctors said I would not gain in weight as long as I stayed in the store; but I kept on working and prayed each day that I might get well. I believe my prayers were answered, for Mr. C. A. Lippincott, my employer (Lippincott & Co., Department Store, 306 to 314 Market street, Wilmington, Del.) had learned of a remedy called Eckman's Alternative that had done great good, and upon his recommendation I began taking it at once. This was about June, 1908. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alternative saved my life. I sent my spittle later to the State Board of Health to be examined for tuberculosis bacilli, and none were found. My mother died from Consumption when I was about two years old."

"I make this statement so that others may learn of the wonderful merits of Eckman's Alternative. I regard my recovery as being miraculous." (Sworn affidavit) JAS. SQUIRES.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles and in up-building the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Geo. E. Mariner, Chas. Beyerhag and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.—Advertisement.

JOHNSON INDICTED AS WHITE SLAVER

Black Pugilist Arrested and Released on $30,000

Bond Furnished by Mother

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, appeared before Federal Judge Landis today to have approved a bond for $30,000 furnished by his mother when he was arrested yesterday on a federal indictment charging violation of the Mann white slave law. The specific charge against him is that he brought Belle Schreiber, a white woman, from Pittsburgh to Chicago for immoral purposes. John wept when handcuffs were put on his wrists and he was led away to the county jail. He only remained there a short time before his attorney arrived with the bond signed by Mrs. Tina Johnson.

Lucile Cameron, the Minneapolis girl, whose relations with Johnson caused the federal investigation, was still held today at the Rockford jail, as a witness against Johnson. Her bond of $25,000 was not reduced because it was feared she might elope with the negro.

KEEP UP STANDARD OF SCHOOL MERIT

In dealing with school finances the city council usually adopts as its guide the status of the schools as to efficiency and the natural and fair demands made by that efficiency, with due reference to growth of the schools. Growth of attendance means one of two things: decrease of efficiency or increase of expense.

We believe the increased attendance in La Crosse, especially in view of the fact that a decided increase in practicability has been experienced during the past year, warrants the modest increase in school appropriation asked by the authorities. Surely, when a private citizen has been so generous the city can afford to be as liberal as it is good business to be.

WE WOULD ALL HAVE MASTERED IT BY NOW

Although the number of votes cast in La Crosse county this fall was nearly one thousand (931) less than it was at the last presidential election and but a few more than at the election two years ago when the coupon ballot was used it took much longer to count the votes than at the last election. Two years ago for the first time in the history of the county, the election returns were all in and tabulated before midnight. At that election there was a very much larger number of split ballots cast than this time and it was the first time that the new system of voting and counting had been used.

NEW PLEA FOR SHIP SUBSIDIES

Three steamship companies in Japan are building vessels for use when the Panama canal is opened.

A Chinese owned steamship company is preparing to operate a line from Shanghai and Hong Kong to Central and South America.

Australia is sending men to South America to develop trade.

A line of freight vessels will be run direct from Calcutta or Bombay to South America.

Every important port in Europe is strengthening its harbors and adding to the capacity of its steamship lines.

Chile, Peru and Bolivia are spending $50,000,000 in railways into the interior. Brazil is spending $100,- 000,000 on railways and coast improvements. Venezuela, Colombia,

Central America, Mexico, Cuba and many other countries are busy with preparations to take care of the increased trade which the opening of the Panama canal will bring to their shores.

The Pan-American Union is making these facts the basis for renewed agitation for ship subsidies. Director General Barrett well asks:
"After spending hundreds of millions of dollars on the Panama canal, shall the United States see other nations rake in the profits of this gi-gantic investment?"

ONE OF THE WISEST
OF OUR UNDERTAKINGS

The efficiency of the health department and its corresponding value to the community have been demonstrated so thoroughly that the percentage of that sort of objection which always attaches to a new thing because of its newness has practically disappeared. We are now well into the first division of the school year, without having experienced any of the epidemic children's diseases which one looks for at the first assemblage of pupils. The city is practically free from disease—more so than at any corresponding period in its history, we believe. The result is a great economic saving, as well as a relief from suffering and death. The adoption of the system has been proven a step of wisdom, humanity and Christianity.

THEIR BRICK HOUSE
MAY FALL UPON THEM

The defeat of Hon. J. E. McConnell is an example of the irony of politics. In an election in which this state consistently gave majorities to progressive candidates, the vote seemingly to emphatically endorse the state legislation along progressive lines, the author of much of that legislation, to whom a larger honor and a greater sphere of usefulness had been assured, is beaten by a reactionary democrat.

That the cultured wards conspired with a special business interest to accomplish the defeat of Mr. McConnell is another feature of the election which is creating comment. In both cases the element of private vengeance furnished the inspiration for the opposition, and that state issues were largely disregarded as a determining factor in the voting is apparent.

But those who contributed to the defeat of Mr. McConnell for purely selfish reasons may have "overplayed their hand." The legislature is progressive republican, and Governor McGovern himself has felt the mailed hand of the interests that fell upon McConnell. Let no one be surprised if what was yesterday a local quarrel shall tomorrow become a state issue. It has happened before that petty vengeance has been punished even while gloating over its poor little triumph. The retirement of Mr. McConnell is not of purely local concern; it is a state loss and it will not pass unnoticed. That which is illicit is never impregnable, seldom formidable.

INCREASE SHOWN IN SHIPBUILDING

Pessimists who are alarmed at the activity shown in other countries toward increasing their merchant marine need not be discouraged over the condition in this country.

The department of commerce and labor has just given out a statement showing an increase in shipbuilding for the three months ending September 30, 1912, as against the corresponding period of 1911, the number of sailing, steam and unrigged vessels built being 485, aggregating 80,281 tons, as compared with 452 vessels in 1911, aggregating 76,405 tons.

At the same time 32 steam vessels of steel construction were built, having a gross tonnage of 44,312, as contrasted with only five steam vessels in 1911, with 2,208 gross tons.

This report also declares the shipbuilders of the Great Lakes have demonstrated that they can bid lower on both iron and wooden vessels than foreign competitors, and it is also shown that the cost of materials is increasing so rapidly in Europe that only the lowness of wages will give them any shade of advantage over American shipbuilding concerns.

Inadequate docking facilities and the reluctance of Americans to put their money into shipbuilding are the two drawbacks to the building up of a bigger merchant marine in this country.

New England, once the center of the shipbuilding industry, is fast being robbed of its prestige, but it is believed that to America the nations they want to be staunch and strong and able to breast every gale.

A man who claimed to be the rightful heir to the Spanish throne has just died in Missouri, which is better than staying in Spain and being shot.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Appearance
The gun that isn't loaded is the one that does the harm.
The mule that looks the sleepest,
at kicking can't be beat.
The gal who looks the homeliest kin keep house like a charm.
The steak that looks the tenderest is always hard to eat.

The man who talks the slickest is the slowest to deliver;
The man who doesn't talk at all is right there with the goods.
The man who talks philanthropy is not the cheerful giver,
The man who boasts of bravery is quickest to the woods.

The loudest prayin' deacon is the poorest one to trust;
The softest-talkin' married folks are quickest to divorce.
The fastest-goin' friendship is the quickest fer to bust.
The smallest lookin' copper is the bravest on the force.

The feller with the silk hat hasn't got the biggest pile.
The steadiest of housemaids ain't the fairest fer to see.
Don't bank upon a feller who has always got a smile;
Appearances ain't always just what they're cracked up to be.

Puzzled the Cop

It was in one of those thriving
Texas cities where railroads abound that a tired and weary traveler, accosted a policeman and asked the way to the Y. M. C. A.

The copper was puzzled. He took off his hat and scratched his head.
Finally he burst out: "Stranger, you have got me, I know where the Frisco is, and the M. C. & T., but the Y. M. C. A. is a new one on me."

The Boy Was Curious

A small boy was selling papers at a railway station where there were some twenty or thirty people waiting for the train.

A comedian standing by called to the newsboy:

"I say, boy, would you like a new job?"

"Yes, sir," replied the boy. "What is it?"

"Well," said the comedian, "my master wants a fool."

"Oh does he?" said the newsboy.
"Is he going to sack you or keep two?"

Just Faded Away

"So you've broken off your engagement with Miss Smarte?" asked the inquisitive friend.

His victim shook his head.

"No," he replied; "I didn't break it off!"

"Oh, then she broke it off?"

"No," answered the young man, enjoying his friend's growing wonder.

"But it is broken off, isn't it?"
persisted the curious one.

"Oh, yes," explained the young man gently. "She told me what her dressmaker's yearly bill was, and I told her what my income was. Then our engagement gently dissolved."

Cheeky Indeed

"I hear," said Lou to his friend
Dick, whom he happened to meet one morning, "that Maude has broken her engagement with you."

"Yes," answered Dick; "it's true."

"Well, I'm sorry, old man. Why did she break it?"

"Why, merely because I stole a kiss," said Dick.

"What!" cried Lou. "Why, she must be crazy to object to having her fiance steal a kiss from her."

"Well," explained Dick, "the trouble was, I didn't steal it from her."

"MUM" SHOW OVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Residents of the national capital every fall enjoy a rare treat at the hands of the department of agriculture when the well known chrysanthemum show is opened to the public. The annual chrysanthemum exhibition which has just closed has attracted flower lovers and botanists from afar and incidentally produced several new types of this flower. The stellar exhibit this year was the "Christy Mathewson," a huge white bulb of beauty. It is a recent creation of A.
D. Smith of Adrian, Mich. The "Manhattan" and the "Roman Gold" are wonderful blooms of delicate pink and rich yellow, respectively.

There were over 160 varieties of large blooms on exhibition and 140 smaller ones, the latter known as the outdoor variety.

An innovation at the "mum" show this year was the introduction of every variety of carnations.

An Aid to Memory

J. M. Callwell, in "Old Irish Life," tells a story of a young peasant woman, Sally Sweeney, who used to walk into Galway twice a week to do shopping for her family when they lived in the country.

She could neither read nor write, yet she never made a mistake with any of the messages that were intrusted to her. Once, however, her memory had failed her. One of the old ladies of the family had ordered her to bring back a yard of some color of satin, and the unaccustomed word slipped out of Sally's recollection. But she did not allow herself to be beaten without an effort to recall the word, so she went into the principal shop in the Galway still thinking hard.

"What is it that ye call the devil," she asked, "whin it's not divil that ye say to him?"

"Is it Satan you would be meaning?" asked the astonished draper.
"The very wan," said Sally delightedly. "An' ye'll give me a yard."—

"Fast, I tell you," he thundered down at his listeners, "fast if ye would find salvation; and that there shall be no backsliders I, even I have thrust fasting upon you. There is food left upon this ship, yea and drink also, both strong and otherwise, such as may endure for the space of two weeks, and after that woe, woe to the man that shall not take to fasting with prayer and the mate acidly, "we may starve, and men may die, but each one will have to report wherever he lands that he's got there because of an engineer who's incompetent at his job."

"I'm as capable at my profession as any engineer on all the seas. I accept criticism from no brass-edged cargo-tallier whatever, and I'll battize you with blood, my son, when I've finished attending to the heathen. Wherefore listen, all ye that are still unregenerate and addicted to gluttony. Fast, I say unto you, fast from this day onward while food is still around you, and abstinence is not forced upon you by famine, and the greater reward in the hereafter shall be yours."

"Mr. Little, there is no getting over the fact of your incompetence.
I've seen the evidence of it myself in your own shaky handwriting, and signed by your own name. Now you'll agree with me that no man that had ever been taught to write could scrawl as illiterate a signature as yours."

The madman lifted his ax, and was evidently in half a mind to throw it—which was what Mr.
Kettle, the Mate, was angling for.
But the wandering eyes of his congregation drew him back.

"Oh, ye of little concentration," he shouted, "by what loose threads are your bits of souls tethered! By skirt ye are led ashore, by a small-sized mate ye are driven at sea, and me ye will not attend to, yea, though I offer ye salvation. But by the sun above that now scorches me, ego, vos precedens, will drag you after me to Paradise."

"You couldn't do it," said the mate. "You're as incompetent either to lead or to drive in the straight path, as you are to make out an accurate estimate of distance run, and coal remaining in bunkers.
Man, there's no getting over the evidence of your own daily engine-room reports. They'd disgrace a bigamist, sailing his first trip in a dago tramp's stokehold. They—"

"Whiz!" came the ax, winking as it span downward through the southern sunlight. The mate dodged it deftly, and it skated along the decks between two shrinking lines of men, and then plucking a green-heart belaying-pin from the rail, he ran forward and swung himself into the fore rigging.

He went up the ratlines at racing speed, and the naked man on the crossbeams leaped to his feet, and stood balancing there with one hand on the starboard topmast shroud, swaying to the roll of the ship.

"You are bringing me food," he screamed; "you shall not make me lose my high-class soul by forcing me to break my fast. I will swim to Liverpool, and report A. you to the Board of Trade." And with that, waiting cannily till the Norman Towers rolled to starboard, and the deep blue of the Sargasso Sea lay beneath him, he jumped outward and dived feet foremost.

Mr. Kettle's action was prompt enough. Even while the madman was in mid-air, he hailed the officer of the watch to lower away the starboard quarterboat. Then slipping quickly down himself, he ran across the decks and looked over the rail. He knew that Mr. Little could swim, and only wished to reassure himself that he had not been stunned by his dive.

The Norman Towers had lost her way by this time, and lay in the tough of the great blue ocean swells leaking a thin trickle of steam. The spot where the engineer had hit the sea was marked by a patch of white which bubbled like soda-water. Mr. Kettle jumped to the rail and stood there poised.

He was a poor man and always dandy about his dress, and as he had a cat's dislike for getting his clothes wet or soiled, he did not want to jump overboard and spoil a suit that he could ill afford to replace, unless the engineer plainly showed that he wanted assistance.

So when the man's white face appeared, and he spat out a mouthful of weed and water and set off swimming at a sturdy side-stroke for the northeast, the mate sang out an ironical "Good voyage," and went to the upper deck to oversee the lowering of the quarterboat.

The davits swung outward, the tackles squeaked like a parcel of angry cats, the boat splashed into the water, unhooked and pushed off.
Oars straddled out from her, and beat the water unevenly. Slowly she scratched her way over the hill and dale of the sea. The engineer, when he heard the clank of the looms against the thole-pins, swam to the farther side of an islet of the orange-yellow weed, and it looked as if they were going to have trouble with him. But words passed in the boat, and one of the rowers shipped his oar and stood up. He picked up some small line which lay on the untidy floor boards, made a running bowline on one end, and arranged some coils to his satisfaction, throw and hauled taut. The man caught the engineer round the neck with his first heave, and (after the se-

NEW YORK WANTS TO SIGN CHANCE

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Following the announcement that Harry Wolverton had been deposed as manager of the New York Americans it was rumored about that Frank Farrell, president of the Yanks, wants to sign Frank Chance to lead his club and that he would make the former Cub pilot the biggest offer ever made to a manager. It is said that Farrell has offered Chance $18,000 a year and five per cent of the gross receipts for five years.

It seems likely that Murphy has asked for waivers on Chance to find out how many clubs want him. There is no doubt but that there are teams in the National league that want him but the American league is also anxious to get his services. There are undoubtedly several clubs in each league that want him and he would be a big drawing card as a rival to McGraw in New York but until he gets his release from the Cubs no other team has a chance to sign him.

INJURED MAN IS FOUND ON BRIDGE

Mose McDonald, residing near Brownsville, Minn., is lying at St. Francis hospital with a broken leg and other injuries the result of a runaway last evening while he was on his way home from La Crosse.

He had reached the center of the wagon bridge, according to his story, when he stopped his horses to fix the whiplash. While stooping over in front of the wagon, the horses suddenly started to run. McDonald was struck by one of the wheels and thrown to one side where he was found a few moments later. The police were notified and he was removed to the St. Francis hospital.

Dr. C. Christensen who is attending McDonald, today declared that the fracture of his hip is one of the most serious fractures he has ever encountered.

The horses were caught by Mabel and Miranda Allen, age 19 and 17, a mile west of the wagon bridge.

WOLGAST SAYS HE WILL QUIT RING

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast will permanently retire from the ring within a year, and possibly sooner. Mrs. Wolgast is the cause of the contemplated action of the title holder. The better half of the boss of the 133 pounders is opposed to her husband continuing in the fighting game, and as is usual in cases like this the will of the weaker vessel will prevail.

"She is dead against me fighting," Wolgast writes to a Milwaukee friend. "She has been after me to quit the game ever since we were married two years ago, and I am going to retire."

"I am getting thoroughly disgusted with the game. Everybody wants to see me licked. That may be natural, but it is discouraging to be a target for everybody. I have been criticised from one end of this country to the other. If I take a few drinks they say I am sousing up and hitting the high spots. When I fight, if I don't knock out my man they pan me and say that I am slowing up and that I am a joke as a title holder anyway. My record though will bear witness that I am no 'cheese champion' as Nelson termed me."

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Alfred De Oro, pool champion of the world, is favorite today in his match with Frank Sherman, former champion, for the title. The two will play the third and last block of their match tonight, and De Oro, after losing on the first night, goes into tonight's match with an advantage. He defeated Sherman last night 400 to 345.

INDIAN GAME OF INTEREST

Result of Army-Carlisle Battle to Be Watched; Pennsylvania and Michigan Weak

Yale vs. Brown, New Haven. Harvard vs. Vanderbilt, Cambridge. Princeton vs. New York, Princeton. Army vs. Carlisle, West Point. Cornell vs. Dartmouth, Ithaca. Pennsylvania vs. Michigan, Philadelphia. Chicago vs. Northwestern, Chicago. Wisconsin vs. Arkansas, Madison. Illinois vs. Purdue, La Fayette. Indiana vs. Iowa, Indianapolis. Notre Dame vs. St. Louis, St. Louis.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Tomorrow will be more or less of a gray day in the national football situation. No particularly big game is scheduled, either in the east or the west. Chief interest centers in the Harvard-Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania-Michigan contests, because each will give a line on relative inter-sectional strength. Harvard is touted by many as the best of the eastern eleven, while Vanderbilt is ranked strongest in the west or south. Pennsylvania and Michigan are regarded as the weakest big teams in their own sections. The result of their game will be awaited with interest, notwithstanding their poor early season showings.

Most of the football critics will journey up to West Point for the Army-Carlisle game, which is tipped off as the battle on the schedule. Devore's soldiers have been going steadily all season and Captain Thorpe's Indians are playing their usual game. Yale will probably nose Brown out, and Princeton should have a walk away with New York university. In the west none of the games scheduled will affect the title.

BADGER DEFENSE NOT SATISFACTORY

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—More scrimmage was the order at Madison today. The coaches are not satisfied with the defensive work of the Badgers. Notwithstanding the fact that they held Chicago on the one-yard-line, there were other times when the Midway backs went through for good substantial gains. The Badgers will need all the strength in the line that they can get to stop men like McAlmon and Tobin of Minnesota. These two players are wonderful line blockers, and will give any team a world of trouble in stopping them. The varsity went after the freshmen again today, and did not have much trouble with them.

The offensive work of the Badger backs is pretty good, especially the work of Tandberg and Torney. They carried the ball up and down the field with ease. Bellows ran the team the last couple of days, and he showed good form. Gillette and Capt. Hoefel have been taking it easy this week in order to be in the best of shape for the struggle with the Gophers.

Van Riper returned to the squad today, much to the joy of Coach Juneau. Johnny's knee is all right again, but not strong enough to take part in any of the harder work for a few days. His return will strengthen the backfield wonderfully. Coach Schulz is paying marked attention to the line, as this is the vital point in the new game. Powell, Keeler and Gelein will be a powerful trio when they stack up against Coach William's huskies.

A. A. WILL MAKE CHANGE IN RULES

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Inter-scholastic Athletic association will be held this afternoon at the Plankinton house. Several changes in the rules governing athletics are proposed. In the future no student will be allowed to compete more than forty-eight calendar months following his admittance to school. Players also will be prohibited wearing the colors of an opposing team during a game.

It is also suggested that a rule be adopted allowing only seniors who take full work to represent their school in athletics. Many students having nearly the required amount of credits to be graduated attend school only half a day during their senior year. There is considerable opposition to the proposed rule.

REFEREE NEEDED IN PRIZE RING

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The foreign custom, which keeps referees outside the ring during boxing bouts, today was declared unsatisfactory for Americans. The Forty-Seventh Street A. C. had tried it out several times, and in each instance it has failed. Young Corbett, the club referee, has tried to maintain his composure and keep the fighters inside the ring on their good behavior, but has failed. The mitt-wielders positively refuse to behave each time until Corbett climbed into the ring.

NORMAL EXPECTS TO WIN VICTORY

Local Eleven Leaves Today to Play the River Falls Team This Afternoon

With high hopes returning with the large end of the score the members of the normal football team sojourning to River Falls today where this afternoon they will play the eleven of that city. Coach Carter is very optimistic of the prospects of victory and as River Falls will be every bit as tough a proposition as Milwaukee, a close contest is anticipated. Captain Roberts and twelve other warriors with Coach Carter and Manager Langdon went by train to Prescott, from where they will travel by stage to River Falls.

The normal school has a good representation at Milwaukee attending the convention of the Wisconsin Teachers' association. President Cotton left last night and during the day Messrs Hitchcock and Bettenger and Messrs. Austin and Moore followed suit. Miss Hitchcock is chairman of the kindergarten section and Professor Austin will read a special paper.

The children of the fifth and sixth grades held an exciting debate and political discussion recently with woman suffrage being the subject for debate and the various presidential candidates the political material. In the vote in which the pupils all took part equal suffrage lost out. Paul Mahoney made a campaign speech for Woodrow Wilson, Robert Hurligen for Roosevelt and Byrl Engleman and Orville Schall spoke for Taft.

HUGGINS MANAGER IN NAME ONLY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—Miller Huggins, new manager of the Cardinals, according to his agreement with Mrs. Britton, lady magnate, will be merely a figurehead. He will not have the right to make any deals or trades without first consulting her.

Huggins has agreed to these terms, the enforcement of which was one of the many reasons for Bresnahan and Mrs. Britton falling out. Mrs. Britton all along has insisted on holding the whip hand over her manager. She admits that she blocked several deals Bresnahan had in view but declares she did it for the good of the club.

O'DAY RESIGNS AS CINCINNATI BOSS

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—While the talk of Joe Tinker for the manager of the Cincinnati Reds was rife, Hank O'Day relieved the situation of an embarrassing feature by mailing his resignation to President Herrmann from Chicago. In his letter O'Day states that he had learned of the opportunity coming to the Cincinnati club to secure a playing manager, and not wishing to stand in the way of such a deal he asked that his name be dropped from any consideration in connection with the position.

A New Method

of Baking Cakes

Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the baking expert, says:

"There is just one way to make your cakes rise high and evenly—give them time to rise before a crust is formed and the batter is stiffened by cooking."

"If using a gas, gasoline or oil stove, light your oven when you put the cake in and keep the flame low until the cake has doubled in bulk; then increase the heat until it is evenly browned and will respond to the pressure of the finger. If using a coal or wood range, leave the oven door open until the cake is in; then turn on the drafts and by the time the oven is at baking temperature, the cake will have raised sufficiently."

For rich, moist, feathery cakes Mrs. Briggs always recommends

KC BAKING POWDER
It is double acting and sustains the raise. You can open and close the oven door, turn the tin around in the oven or do anything else necessary, without any danger of making the cake fall.
Try your favorite cake next time with K C Baking Powder and see how much higher it will rise. Make it just as you always do, with the same quantity of baking powder. While K C is less expensive than the old fashioned baking powders, it has even greater leavening strength and it is guaranteed pure and healthful.

MORE INTEREST IN WATERWAY MEET

National River and Harbor Convention to Call Out Largest Number of Delegates

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—The coming national convention of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, which will be held in this city on the 4th, 5th and 6th of December, gives promise of bringing together the largest number of delegates that ever attended a waterway congress. President Taft will open the convention with a notable address on the needs of waterway improvements and will be followed by a number of leading men of both the United States and Canada.

Public Interest Aroused
It is a subject for general congratulation, according to Ex. Congressman J. Adam Bede, that the several water and levee conventions held up to the present time have been more largely attended than at any time in the history of the association. "To my mind the increased attendance of delegates and visitors to these waterway conferences has but one significance, an aroused public interest in the cause of waterway improvements and a determination to push the work of bettering our river transportation in order that the threatened freight congestion may be relieved in the future."

"Having attended three waterway conventions this year and having noticed the increased interest in the subject, I feel certain that there is a better feeling toward the waterways than ever existed before, and this among railroad men too."

Backs Up Bede
This view of Mr. Bede is emphasized by no less a person than President W. W. Finley of the Southern railway. When asked today about statement made at the recent Levee convention at Memphis, Tenn., which reported the railroads of the south as opposing the improvement of inland waterways and the maintenance of the levee system, Mr. Finley said: "So far such statements have been based on a misunderstanding of the facts. As a representative of that company, which operates in a section of the country in which the importance of waterways can be increased, and dealing with the subject as a practical and not as a theoretical matter, I have repeatedly stated our position to be that of favoring the improvement of inland waterways so far as they can be made economically efficient highways of commerce. I might say that, interested as we are in the development of the territory in the Mississippi Valley that is subject to overflow, it would be a very shortsighted policy on our part to oppose the maintenance of the levee system."

INSURANCE PAPER DISCUSSES PLANS

Declares State Insurance System in Wisconsin Is Soundly Established

The Spectator, one of the oldest and leading insurance journals of the country, has this to say editorially about Wisconsin state life insurance:

"Life underwriters and students will alike be interested in the new social experiment which has now become an active economic identity in the state of Wisconsin. That state a year ago authorized the creation of a state system of life insurance, and after months of preparation the scheme has been launched and the fund is ready to receive applications for insurance. The system is soundly established on scientific principles, and presents very attractive features; but the problem which confronts it is the same which has been experienced since the birth of the life insurance principle—namely, how to secure business at low cost. The Wisconsin life insurance fund will accept applications through various state and county officials, but the remuneration for writing them is so small that it will preclude any possibility of active solicitation of business. Therefore, the idea resolves itself to the question as to whether enough "over-the-counter" business can be placed to really compensate in its benefits the time, trouble and expense required to establish and operate the system. The Massachusetts savings bank plan can scarcely be called a mediocre success. The Wisconsin plan differs somewhat from the Massachusetts system, but presents the same drawbacks. At least the development of the new fund will be sharply scrutinized during the next few months."

CAPITOL NEAR COMPLETION

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—Assurance that the new south wing of the state capitol will be sufficiently completed by next January to accommodate the state senate was given to Superintendent of Public Property W. SUFFRAGE BEATEN BY A LARGE VOTE

Mrs. Benedict Predicts that Amendment Will Win in the Near Future

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Woman suffrage was defeated by a very large majority in Wisconsin, but just how much that majority will be is not yet known.

Mrs. Crystal Eastman Benedict, campaign manager for the Political Equality league in Wisconsin, predicted that equal suffrage would win in Wisconsin in the near future.

"The large vote cast for suffrage in this state is most gratifying," she said. "I think suffrage lost, not because of the activities of any special interests opposed to it, but because of the conservatism of the majority of the people of the state, both men and women."

Starting with an adverse majority of 20,895 in Milwaukee its fate was doomed, as there were large majorities against it in many counties. But, on the other hand it was carried in several counties.

With all but three counties reported the vote on the woman suffrage amendment stood this afternoon: Yes, 191,151; no, 186,451. Majority for, 4,700.

UNIVERSITY MEN TO STUDY PLANTS

A party of seniors at the university of Wisconsin, among whom is Stanley Harrison of this city, will leave this week for the east, where they will go on a tour of inspection of the various engineering plants. While on their trip the party will go to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Schenectady, New York city, Pittsburg and Cleveland, returning by way of Chicago and Milwaukee after visiting many interesting plants along the way.

The members of this party are nearing the close of a four year course of study in engineering at Madison. Stanley Harrison has just been initiated into the honorary fraternity of engineers for good scholarship.

M'KIBBIN UPHELD BY JUDGE HIGBEE

Motion to Disbar Vernon County District Attorney Denied by Circuit Court

Judge E. C. Higbee today denied the motion of the Vernon County Bar association to disqualify George W. McKibbin as district attorney of Vernon county on the grounds that an error of the court was made at the time that McKibbin was admitted to practice law in this state.

McKibbin, a progressive republican, was nominated by a majority of over 700 votes at the primary election. The Vernon County Bar association immediately made a motion to disqualify him, alleging he had not fulfilled all of the requirements. He was elected at the polls Tuesday, having no opposition and the decision of Judge Higbee insures him the office.

Under the laws of Wisconsin, a lawyer who has been admitted to practice before the supreme court of another state is qualified to practice before the circuit court of Wisconsin.

Under the laws of Virginia, where McKibbin practiced, any lawyer who had been admitted to practice before the circuit court of that state was entitled to practice before the supreme court. McKibbin had practiced before the circuit court of Virginia and although entitled to practice before the supreme court had never done so.

The Vernon County Bar association held that as he had never practiced before the supreme court of Virginia he was not legitimately qualified to practice here.

Judge Higbee decided that as he was entitled to practice before the supreme court of another state he was qualified to practice in Wisconsin whether or not he had ever taken advantage of his rights in another state.

Attorneys A. C. and W. F. Wolfe represented McKibbin in the case which has been pending before Judge Higbee for the last month.

CONSUL GOVERNOR TALKS TO BOARD

Between thirty and forty business men and manufacturers attended a meeting of the board of trade and industrial association which was held in the city hall last night to hear a talk on "Trade Relations With the Orient," by G. Bie Ravndal, consul general to Constantinople, Turkey. Consul Ravndal, who has been located at Constantinople for several years and is thoroughly conversant with the trade possibilities of the countries of eastern Europe and western Asia, proved an unusually interesting speaker and he was closely followed throughout by the manufacturers and jobbers in his audience. Mr. Ravndal attended the international convention of civic associations in Boston recently and is making a tour of the country speaking before the various chambers of commerce in the United States on the trade possibilities in the Orient. He is confident that La Crosse manufacturers could find a profitable market for La Crosse made goods in Turkey.

HUNTING CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET

The annual meeting of the La Crosse County Hunting and Fishing association which was postponed from last week will be held in the county court room at the court house tonight. The election of officers and the appointment of delegates to the state convention of hunting and fishing associations which will be held in Madison the latter part of this month will be the principle transactions of the meeting. It was rumored today that President A. T. Rasmussen has found a way to provide venison for the game dinner which has been planned for the members of the association in the near future. Although no definite arrangements have been made for this dinner, it is expected that a committee will be named tonight to complete the plans for the banquet to which only members of the association will be invited.

The average man's popularity seldom outlasts his money.

PREPARATION

We are now concentrating our best efforts toward the perfection of our holiday assortments and arrangements. It will not be an Indian summer makeshift indifferently thrown together, but will embody the nicest skill in selection that it is possible for us to bestow upon our exacting clientele. Of course we will make special announcement of our readiness at the proper time—meanwhile a great many people blessed with good eyes and nimble brains have already found "just what they want."

DANGER OF WAR AMONG POWERS NEVER SO GREAT

paper offices today that the Sofia and Belgrade censors have not only been cutting out portions of the war correspondent's reports but that they also written into them without the correspondent's knowledge, much misinformation, which they believed more likely to pass for truth under the correspondents' signatures than if given out in the form of official statements.

Negotiate for Surrender VIENNA, Nov. 8.—Informal negotiations have been begun with a view to the surrender of the Turkish troops holding the still uncaptured forts constituting Constantinople's last defenses. Lieut. Wagner telegraphed to his newspaper here, the Reichspost, today. In the meantime Wagner stated, Bulgarian operations against the fortifications were progressing steadily.

Austria Causes Trouble
The international situation was alarming again today. Both here and at Berlin the bourses were depressed and diplomats anxious.

If Serbia insists on an outlet to the Adriatic, high officials here said plainly, Austria will be compelled to resort to arms. Serbia is insisting.

It was considered unlikely that so small a country would defy Austria unless assured of the support of some powerful outside support. Of course, diplomats agreed, this nation must be Russia. This was regarded as raising the danger of an Austro-Russian clash again.

A Belgrade message quoted Serbian statesmen as saying their country fought for the sole purpose of taking the ports of Durazzo, San Giovanni di Medua and Alessio from Turkey, and they do not propose to be cheated out of the fruit of victory.

Regardless of Serbia's wishes, it was answered here, Austria and Italy intend to divide western Turkey between them. Italy, it was said, is to have Albania, in the shape of a nominally independent kingdom, under the Duke of Abruzzi. Austria means to take everything else west of the railroad running from Mitrovitz to Salonika.

This would leave nothing at all for Serbia and Montenegro.

The outlook was regarded as extremely threatening.

Cholera Breaks Out
CONSTANTSA, Roumania, Nov. 8.—A disease resembling cholera has broken out among the wounded in Constantinople, it was learned here today on reliable authority.

Bulgars Capture Chatalja
VIENNA, Nov. 8.—The Bulgarian first army captured the heights of Chatalja yesterday and the third army broke through the Turkish right wing at Delyimus, according to a special received today by the Reichspost from the Bulgarian army headquarters.

"Constantinople's last bulwark is gone," concluded the message.

Massacre at Silivri

SOFIA, Nov. 8.—Turkish soldiers have massacred inhabitants of the town of Silivri and set the town on fire, it was reported here today. It was said the slaughter began when the people resisted the seizure of all their food by the starving troops. Silivri is at the southern extremity of the Chatalja fortifications on the sea of Marmara. Its population is about 8,000.

Powers are Divided

PARIS, Nov. 8.—"The dangers of a general European war, growing out of the Balkan struggle is extremely grave," said ex-Foreign Minister Flourens in an interview today. "If the powers had wished to prevent the present struggle they could have done so easily by forcing Turkey to grant reforms in its European provinces. Now we are at the mercy of events. The trouble is that the powers are not working toward the same end."

Turks Will Fight On

LONDON, Nov. 8.—In direct contradiction of Sofia reports that Turkey had opened negotiations for surrendering Constantinople to the Bulgarians, a Constantinople message today declared Nazim Pasha, the Ottoman war minister and commander

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

865 TOWNS ASK STATE ROAD AID

Total Amount Asked of the State Is $865,027 for Roads and Bridges
BIG INCREASE OVER 1911
Only 522 Towns Took Advantage of New Law Last Year; Can't Pay All

Full reports have been received by the Wisconsin highway commission of the money voted for state aid road and bridge construction in 1912. There are 1,195 towns in Wisconsin, of which $65 voted for state aid road construction on 1,267 different pieces of road, asking for state aid to the total amount of $757,273. Two hundred and five towns voted for the construction of 337 bridges, a total amount of $107,754, which calls for $53,877 state aid. In all, 883 different towns in 68 counties voted for state aid a total amount of $865,027, calling for the sum of $811,150 in state aid.

These figures show a very large increase, both in number of towns voting and amounts voted, over last year. Last year 511 towns voted a total of $422,200 for roads, and 125 towns voted $55,10 for bridges, in all 522 towns in 65 counties calling for $452,800 state aid in 1912.

The state highway fund for 1913 work is $350,000, to which is added in accordance with law, one-quarter of the net proceeds from the automobile license of $5 per car, amounting to about $28,000. This total sum of $378,000 is $435,150 less than the full amount of state aid requested.

It is hoped that some method will be devised whereby the state may give each town what it expected to receive when it made its appropriation. The growth of the movement for better roads in Wisconsin has been so rapid that legislation has not kept pace with it. In 1907, permanent road construction was practically nothing; in 1913, if the state could pay its full share, it would be fully $2,542,000. There has never been in the United States a movement for better roads so statewide or so generally popular and the results so far secured under the state aid road law promise well for the future development of the roads of Wisconsin.

FARMING UNDER WATER

Farming under forty feet of water would seem to be rather difficult. It is both difficult and expensive work, and is done upon a vast scale. There are farms under forty, fifty and even sixty feet of salt water—sometimes more than twenty thousand acres under a single management.

These farms do not produce grain, but oysters. They are sometimes more extensive and expensive than the vast grain fields of the West. Oyster grounds have been sold for $700 per acre—all under water. The crop is propagated, seeded, planted, protected, removed, replanted, manured and harvested all by steam power, large steamers being employed capable of catching 1,200 bushels of oysters per hour from these grounds.

These oyster grounds, as may be readily seen, are no longer in the little creeks, estuaries and rivers where nature's oysters formerly grew, but are in the great open bays and sounds, like Long Island Sound, Peconic, Gardiners, Narragansett, Great South and Chesapeake bays, where the ground is swept by the deep, pure current of the salt sea water, and where the products of oysters is always pure and delicious. This is modern culture, which has practically replaced the small, natural oyster fishery.

ELOPERS FORGIVEN

VIENNA, Nov. 8.—Forgiven by her father, Count Serenyi, Hungarian minister of agriculture, the beautiful young Countess Marie Elizabeth has returned home with her husband, Albert Bader, son of an ex-Austrian consul general in Egypt, with whom she recently eloped under dramatic circumstances.

The countess' parents had arranged for her marriage with a Hungarian cavalry officer, and when she refused they sent her to a convent. Here, despite the watchfulness of the sisters, she managed to get into communication with her lover and escaped by night, climbing a high wall and subsequently concealing herself in the neighboring forest until she could make her way unobserved to Munich. There she met young Bader. They went to London, were married and wired the news to the count.

SET CONVENTION DATE

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—The seventh annual convention of the Wisconsin union, American Society of Equity, has been set for Marshfield, on November 20, by the executive board, which met at the state headquarters here yesterday. The wool growers' department will meet November 19, and the women's auxiliary November 20. The livestock and tobacco departments and potato growers' association will meet on the evening of November 29, and the departments of dairy and poultry, forest products and sugar beets the next evening. About 400 delegates are expected. The membership is 12,000, divided into 500 locals.

HOME TREATMENT FOR NERVOUSNESS

It is never too late to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for nervous troubles. You can be certain that a breakdown or exhaustion of your nerves is due to a lack of nourishment caused by thin or impure blood. The starved nerves break down after any unusual strain. This condition is easily remedied with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They start at once to build up the blood, making it richer and purer with every dose, thereby checking further wear on the nerves and the progress of the disease. The new blood makes the nerves more fit every day to do their work.

The thoroughness with which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People act is seen in the clear complexion, better appetite, improved digestion, gain in weight and the freedom from restlessness, sleeplessness, irritability and headaches. Mrs. J. L. Brennan, of No. 89 Parker street, Brewer, Maine, says: "For three years I suffered with nervousness and was confined to bed one time for six weeks. I couldn't sleep as I was constantly imagining that I saw all sorts of things when I closed my eyes. My stomach was in bad shape and I could eat nothing but light foods. I was troubled with gas on my stomach. I had awful headaches. The pains were through my forehead and were like neuralgia. I became so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor and had to give up my work. My heart would palpitate when I exerted myself, like going up stairs."

"Our doctor said I was nervous and run down but he did not give me enough help and I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a month's time I had been greatly benefited and I took the pills until cured. I am now free from nervousness and can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a grand blood and nerve tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have given gratifying results in nervous debility, nervous headaches, neuralgia, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

TEA ROOM IS A FAILURE

WOMEN EMPLOYEES OF DEPARTMENT OF TREASURY OBJECT TO USING APARTMENT OF THEIR OWN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh's new tea room in the treasury, especially designed to accommodate the women clerks in that department who desire to brew their own tea during the lunch hour, has met with a mixed fate. Formerly the women were allowed to brew their own tea in their own offices, but Surgeon General Blue found that this was not sanitary, and got the secretary to discontinue it. The room is equipped with hot water and lockers for the tea pots. It is open for 35 minutes each day and there is no ban on gossiping.

Whether the women didn't like the great amount of publicity that was given the room or whether unofficial tea drinking is doomed to failure, cannot be determined, but the fact remains that the tea room isn't popular. Secretary MacVeagh will give the plan a good trial and if it meets with no more success than at present, will probably close the room up and devote it to other purposes.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. O. T. Erhart.—Advertisement.

SQUIRRELS ARE TAME

LITTLE RODENTS RUN ALL OVER
WHITE HOUSE GROUNDS AND ARE FED BY VIS-ITORS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. — The squirrels in the White House grounds are getting so tame that persons having business in that part of Washington are expecting to see them do most anything that any well domesticated animal might do. They run across the president's front porch whenever they feel like it, paying no attention to the policeman there, burrow around the president's geraniums, play with each other about the drives, feed out of the hands of well disposed persons, and on the whole seem to enjoy life much more than any other living thing in the vicinity.

The latest stunt is to climb the iron electric light poles and sit on top of the glass globes. To date no report has come in of their turning on the lights.

Recently a big fat squirrel got on top of an electric light pole and made a great noise as if in distress. A group of onlookers made bets as to what was the trouble. Some suggestions were made for helping Mr. Squirrel out of his supposed predicament. Just when sympathy was running highest the squirrel jumped from the pole five or six feet to the branch of a nearby tree and vanished.

White House officials pay little attention to the squirrels. They are fed mostly by visitors.

KILLS WILD SWANS

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—Jabez Spencer of Camrose, Alberta, killed two wild swans, (Cygnus Americanus), while hunting in Lake Joseph, south of here, a few days ago. There were five in the flock. Spencer is of the belief that the older birds escaped, as those he shot are young, measuring 47 inches in length, with plumage of smoky hue. These birds are rare in the northwest and are by no means common in any part of the world. The Trumpeter and the American are the only specimens of wild swans on this continent. The Trumpeter is the largest measuring 65 inches in length at maturity, while the American seldom is more than 50 inches. The bill of the American is spotted with orange;

that of the Trumpeter is black. They attain full size when five or six years of age. Spencer will have the birds mounted.

"MOVIES" TO AID SALE OF SEALS

James Oppenheim Writes a Dramatic Story for the Anti-Tuberculosis
Campaign

"Hope" is the title and the leading note in a new motion picture film which will be released for exhibition on November 16th., by Thomas A. Edison, working in co-operation with The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The scenario of the picture was written especially for the anti-tuberculosis campaign by Jas. Oppenheim, and the film will be used during the next six weeks as a special feature of the Red Cross Christmas Seal Sale.

Arrangements are being made by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association to have this film shown at different theaters throughout Wisconsin. Several films will be needed to cover the state before the end of the Christmas Seal campaign.

The story, as portrayed by Mr. Oppenheim, tells of a young banker in a little New York town by the name of John Harvey and of his bookkeeper Wells, with whose daughter Edith the banker is in love. A few weeks before the holiday season, Harvey one day receives a letter and some literature from The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, asking him to engage in a tuberculosis campaign in his district, to form a committee to sell Red Cross Christmas Seals, and to work for the erection of a local sanatorium. He shows the material to his old bookkeeper and both the men laugh at the idea that a country district need engage in such a fight. Tuberculosis, they believe, is a thing only of the city slums. Careless and unthinking, however, Wells puts some of the pamphlets in his pocket and forgets the incident.

Meanwhile Edith is trying hard to conceal from her father and lover the annoying cough which she has developed and also the knowledge given her privately by the old family physician that she has tuberculosis. She struggles hard against her love for Harvey and her father, especially when the banker shows her the new home which he is building for them. She is about resolved not to yield to the doctor's advice recommending that she go to a sanatorium, when one evening she accidentally discovers the tuberculosis literature in her father's pocket. As she reads of the dangers to which she is exposing those whom she loves, and of the hope of a cure that may be hers, if she will go to a sanatorium, she finally conquers her immediate desire and resolves to live for health and a cure. She writes a note to her father and to Harvey releasing him from their engagement and leaves home secretly for New York to see what chance she has of being cured, for there is no sanatorium nearer to her home than a day's journey.

It is the bitter realization of the truth that tuberculosis lurks everywhere, even in their own homes, that spurs Harvey and Wells to arouse their townsfolk to the need of preventing this disease and erecting a sanatorium. And all the while they are searching for Edith, until one day by chance they find her name on the records of the Bellevue Hospital Tuberculosis Clinic. They trace her to the ferryboat day camp at that institution and finally to her own miserable hall bedroom. It is not a difficult task to persuade Edith to go home and take the cure in the new sanatorium on the outskirts of the town. Here she completely recovers her health and as an indication of her future mode of life on entering her new home for the first time, a happy bride, she throws the windows wide open to let in the fresh air.

CHAUFFEUR THE GOAT

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Armand Legon, a taxicab driver, is convinced that the fellow who invented the aphorism about honesty being the best policy was a theorist pure and simple.

The other day a passenger left in his cab negotiable securities worth $40,000. Discovering the bundle Armand raced at top speed through the streets to catch his "fare" at the Gare de Lyons, during the trip receiving two summonses from policemen for oversteering. He located the owner who was just about to board a train, and who generously rewarded him with a dollar. Armand then went to the police station to pay his $10 worth of fines.

GOLD DUST digs deep after germs

Soap merely washes over the surface, leaving a greasy film behind it.

Gold Dust "goes to the bottom," and insures absolute purity and sanitary safety. Why not sanitize your home, as well as clean it?

Soap needs muscle help; Gold Dust does all the hard part of the task without your assistance.

Gold Dust is a good, honest, vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, to which are added other purifying materials in just the right proportions to cleanse easily, vigorously and without harm to fabric, utensils or hand.

Specific Blood Poison

Everyone realizes that this disease is a blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. Only a real blood purifier can have any curative effect on a blood poison so powerful as this. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Specific Blood Poison. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will purify your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and it will certainly cure Specific Blood

PACIFIC COAST HAS NEW TRADE

Halibut Fishing Newly Discovered Industry, Meets with Big Success

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—After having overlooked the possibilities in this direction for years, Oregon coast points are discovering a new source of wealth, namely, deep-sea fishing. Valuable halibut fisheries are now being developed which promise to prove exceptionally profitable.

It is only within the past few months that it has become known that extensive halibut banks exist only a few miles from convenient points. A number of schooners have been equipped for the work and are now operating regularly to and from the grounds. A cold storage plant has been erected at Newport, on Yaquina Bay, to handle the catch of the fishing fleet and every trip of the vessels has been marked by success.

It is thought not unlikely, by those in a position to know, that the deep-sea fisheries of the North Pacific may rival in importance those of the North Atlantic. There is an opportunity for an immense fishing fleet to take halibut and other deep-sea fish along the Oregon coast. There has never been a complete investigation of the extent of the fish banks easily reached from Oregon ports, but it is estimated that there are at least 700 square miles of halibut banks, not more than one-half of which have been charted and those only in a perfunctory and haphazard manner. These banks are within easy reach of the Columbia river, Tillamook, Yaquina, Coos and Curry harbors and a minimum of delay would be experienced in re-shipping the catch to market.

Thirty-three varieties of food fish are found on the Oregon coast, the most important is the halibut. Next comes the black cod, then the ling cod, each being valuable for shipment and apparently inexhaustible in quantity.

REGENTS MAKE APPOINTMENTS

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—The executive committee of the regents of the University of Wisconsin announced the following additions and changes in the instructional forces:

For the short course in agriculture: A. H. Kuhlman, assistant in animal husbandry; R. V. Morgan, instructor in engineering; Clarence R. Day, assistant in farm dairying; Beauford M. Gile, assistant in farm dairying.

Extension division: W. E. Hogan, Bridgeport, Conn., instructor in drawing and machine design in place of J. W. Wooley, resigned; H. S. Stuckeman, Pittsburg, instructor in mechanical engineering, in place of R. K. Winning, transferred to the Milwaukee office.

Stewart Schrimshaw was appointed assistant in political economy, in place of E. Gruhl, resigned.

The following scholars were appointed: D. R. Hoagland, agricultural chemistry in place of H. A. Noyes, resigned; Elizabeth C. Newell, Gund scholar in German.

C. A. Freeman was appointed fellow in political economy in place of V. T. Bopp, resigned.

ASQUITH IS KIDDED

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Premier Asquith is being made the target of considerable raillery by the Tory press because of his reference in a recent note to the French premier to "my government," instead of "his majesty's government."

Hitherto no officer of state has presumed to make use of the possessive case in such connection, the expression "my government" being the exclusive prerogative of the king. Folks are wondering whether the premier is purposely introducing an innovation or whether he merely blundered.

EXPERIENCE OF TRAINED NURSE

Who Had Troubles of Her Own to Contend With, As Told by Mrs. Rutherford.

Charlestown, W. Va.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Calvin Rutherford writes as follows: "At one time I suffered terribly from womanly troubles. Some of my symptoms were hot flashes through the face, pains in my sides and back, headache, dizzy spells and pain low down.

Since taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, I am well and enjoying good health, and I want to thank you kindly for your advice. It certainly has proven a blessing to me. Cardui has done what other medicines failed to do.

I am a trained nurse, and have just returned from a case where I recommended Cardui to a lady and she is now taking it."

In the face of such strong recommendation from users of Cardui—the ones who know best just what this preparation will do for weak, ailing women—no wonder we do not have to make extravagant claims for it.

All we can add to the above statement, is that Cardui is prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet directly on the womanly organs.

It is a strengthening tonic and helps to build up womanly strength.

It has helped thousands of women in the last 50 years. Why not you?

Your druggist sells it.

She toured Europe with her aunt, Miss Helen Cannon, this summer and plans to spend the winter with her at the national capital. Miss Le Seure is a great favorite with "Uncle Joe."

OREGON TO HAVE FORESTRY SCHOOL

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—Oregon hopes to build a school of forestry, and a tract of land has been secured that will be admirable for such an institution. This land lies in a heavily timbered section on the western slopes of the Cascade mountains and is now included in a government forest reserve. Negotiations are now going forward to have the title to the property transferred to the state in exchange for the 46,000 acres of school land scattered throughout Oregon. It is felt sure that this acreage will be traded for an equal area of government timber land, and the supervision will be turned over to the state forestry school.

New Work

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—How the commercial and industrial development of Wisconsin cities, towns and villages is to be aided through expert advice given by the department of general information and welfare of the University of Wisconsin extension division, was outlined by Professor J. L. Gillin, the new secretary of that department before the state conference of charities and correction at Lathrop hall.

"There is no doubt," that a large number of places in Wisconsin need expert advice in methods of city development," said Professor Gillin. "The character of the business and industries in a large number of our towns is changing. This is especially true in the northern part of Wisconsin, where once were the lumber camps; but it is none the less true of a large number of our towns which were once merely centers of agricultural communities, without manufacturing industries.

Towns Must Wake Up or Die
"The time has come for our whole middle west, when towns that do not concern themselves about the industrial and social changes that are going on, the new demands that are arising in the commercial world, will die. In fifty years from now, other things being equal, those towns that take thought for the commercial and industrial future, meet the new demands that the changing times are making upon them, will be the cities of Wisconsin.

"The department of general information and public welfare of the University has as one of its aims the assistance of communities which desire to promote their industrial and commercial development. It endeavors to serve as a center to connect such cities and smaller places with men, who for a reasonable sum, will be glad to assist in a campaign for a short period; or the secretary of the department will be glad to cooperate with commercial and industrial organizations in any of our Wisconsin towns to promote the development of these communities.

To Aid in General Uplift
"This department endeavors to cooperate with all sorts of voluntary organizations, such as commercial clubs, ad clubs, improvement leagues, welfare leagues, health societies, women's clubs, church clubs, in short, all kinds of organizations which have for their aim the uplift of the community. All the resources of the university are at the disposal of the secretary to help the communities of Wisconsin to answer the questions which they are asking with respect to their social welfare.

To Hold Community Institutes
"In order to help communities to solve their social problems the department will assist in organizing and holding a number of 'community institutes' in those places where the need seems to be greatest, and where the time seems to be ripe for a movement for social uplift. In these institutes the aim will be to teach the people who wish to know, the facts about how their community can be improved in every possible way.

To Make Social Surveys
"Finally, it is the aim of the department to assist communities that wish to take stock of themselves in making what is now known as a 'social survey.' All betterment begins with information. No physician would attempt to give treatment until he had diagnosed the case. A social survey is a social diagnosis. This department is ready to cooperate with any community in the state in helping the people to carry through a survey that will show them the weak spots in their social life and the strong advantages which they could develop."

PLANS TO TAME BEARS IN PARK

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—To tame the bears that have their homes in Crater Lake National park, one of the newest government reservations, is the task that confronts Superintendent Arant. He hopes to make the wild life of the park as great an attraction as it is at present in the Yellowstone park.

If the bears are to be of interest to visitors, they must get over stage-fright sufficiently to stand close observation. Superintendent Arant will try to solve the problem by systematic feeding, gradually moving the feeding place closer to the Crater Lake Hotel, with the hope that eventually the bears will be no more annoyed by the visitors than would a herd of grazing cattle.

The section about Crater Lake, included in the park, is one of great natural beauty, and as it is in the heart of the Cascades, there is a large number of wild animals in the reservation. The superintendent is anxious to make the most of them as attractions for tourists, and will

MISS BLANCHARD WEDS PROFESSOR

Becomes Bride of Minnesota Agricultural School Instructor; to Live in St. Paul

Miss Hazel Bell Blanchard, 612 Rose street, and Francis W. Peck of St. Paul were married by Rev. H. B. Leonard at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanchard, last evening at 9 o'clock. The relatives and friends of the people were present at the wedding.

The bride is well known in this city where she has lived for a long time and where she has many friends. Mr. Peck is a professor at the agricultural college at St. Paul. The bride was attired in embroidered crepe du chien over cream satin and she wore a veil. The wedding took place in the parlor which was decorated in green and in autumn leaves. The dining room was decorated in white and green and a bouquet of chrysanthemums was on the table.

They left this morning for St. Paul, where they will make their home and they will be at home after January 1.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. Peck's mother of Indianapolis, Mrs. Dawson of Chicago and Mrs. Squire of Trempealeau.

TWO HURT BY TRAINS LAST NIGHT

George Harbin of Racine was found lying on the tracks in the C. M. & St. P. railroad yards on the north side last evening and when he was picked up he said he had been hit by a passenger train. He was found on the tracks by a switch engine and Dr. F. C. Suiter was called to attend him when it was found that his hip and side were slightly injured. This morning it was thought that he was injured when he tried to climb onto a train but fell off.

E. R. Merritt, a C. B. & Q. switchman, had his shoulder slightly injured last evening in an accident. He was injured but little and was back at work this morning.

JEFFERSON AS A DRAUGHTSMAN

Drawings of Plans for University of Virginia in Democrat's Own Hand Published

Thomas Jefferson's architectural drawings for the University of Virginia, done in India ink by himself and shaded by his granddaughter, form part of the illustrations in Herbert B. Adams' volume on Jefferson and the history of the university, and it is a distinct surprise to find that the United States bureau of education lists this publication as among those available for free distribution. Others of the same historical series have long since been exhausted, and it was assumed that none of this edition was left; but the title appears on the 1912 list of available publications, together with some 700 or more titles of books and pamphlets on various educational subjects.

The other publications listed cover a multitude of educational topics, among them the following: Agricultural education; Alaska school and reindeer service; American educational history, including histories of the school system in individual states; education and crime; educational methods; foreign school systems; higher education; industrial and technical education; libraries; teaching of mathematics; rural education; school architecture and sanitation; training of teachers. Many of these publications are of great value to teachers, students of education, librarians, and people having a general interest in education and the improvement of public and private schools.

The bulletin entitled: "List of Publications of the United States Bureau of Education Available for Free Distribution," which contains a detailed statement of all the books and pamphlets obtainable, is now ready, and will be sent to any one requesting it.

TEACHERS SEE MOVIES

POSSIBILITIES OF MOTION PICTURES IN THE SCHOOL ROOM TO BE DEMONSTRATED TO SCHOOLMA'NS

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—How the school teacher may use the motion picture to prevent cases of truancy or to arouse interest in an otherwise dry subject, will be demonstrated to teachers in attendance at the annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Teachers' association which opened in Milwaukee yesterday.

There is not a school principal or teacher in Wisconsin who does not recognize the tremendous drawing power of the motion picture upon school children. Many a case of truancy can be traced to the pull of the "movies." Any boy or girl would rather follow the procession of a frog's development from the seed mass that looks like tapioca pudding through all the wiggly stages to maturity by watching the moving picture screen, than by laboriously following out the frog's life history in the laboratory. Many a boy has run away from a history lesson at school taught from a book and paid a nickel to see history dramatized in motion pictures.

School teachers are coming to recognize that the motion picture machine is like the printing press, it may be used for presenting wholesome and instructive material or it may be used for frothy or even injurious display, depending entirely upon the selection of the films. Almost every school teacher will admit that if the motion picture could be established in every school house and were made available for use as a supplement to the blackboard, the text book and written work, it would play a large part in transforming the school house from a place to which students must be sent to a place of attraction and interest.

Demonstrate School Machine
At the demonstration to be made at the state teachers' meeting the standard motion picture machine will be shown and also the newest outfit designed especially for school room use and put on the market at a figure so low that even the one room country school can afford to have one. This demonstration will be arranged by Edward J. Ward of the bureau of social center development in the extension division of the University of Wisconsin. His experience with motion pictures in public school buildings has extended over a period of three years. He was in charge of the school room motion picture exhibitions in Milwaukee a year ago.

Picture Used to Educate
The educational possibilities of the motion picture have been known for a long time. The United States government in the school at West Point and the naval academy at Annapolis has been using motion pictures for more than a year. In the city of Orange, N. J., motion picture equipment has been established in every school building. In several of the schools of New York and Brooklyn the pictures are now being used successfully.

At the last session of the legislature, the possibilities of the motion picture were presented and demonstrated in the assembly chamber of the state capitol at Madison, this being the first time that any state house has been even temporarily turned into a motion picture theater. At this meeting, which was arranged through the co-operation of the extension division of the University of Wisconsin, Dean L. E. Reber showed that the extension division now has the machinery available for the establishment of an educational film exchange and that all that will be necessary to secure efficient educational motion picture service will be the securing of a machine in the school house desiring the pictures and the appropriation of a sufficient sum by the state to lease or buy selected educational films for circulation through the extension division to the schools of the state.

SUFFRAGE EXPENSES FILED

VOTERS KILL FIVE MEN

OREGON REFUSES TO ABOLISH CAPITAL PUNISHMENT AND CONVICTED MURDERERS WILL DIE

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 8.—Because the people of Oregon voted on Tuesday against the abolition of capital punishment in this state, five men will be hanged within a few minutes of each other on Friday, December 13. After having postponed all the executions for several months in order to allow the people of the state to express themselves on the capital punishment in the votes, Gov. West announced today that he would delay no further.

It is plain from the returns that the people of Oregon prefer hanging, he said in a statement to the United Press. "I have no complaint to offer against the voters' decision. I am opposed to capital punishment as a matter of fact, but I will abide by the decision and hanging will be the punishment in the state forthwith."

Before election West had announced, that, should the voters adopt the capital punishment bill, he would commute the sentences of the five men to life imprisonment.

AUTOS ON THE PRAIRIE

FIRST MACHINE PENETRATES NORTHWEST INTO PEACE RIVER DISTRICT OF ALBERTA

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—R. J. Ferguson of Calgary, returned today from an automobile trip of 1,800 miles in the north country, being the first to drive a machine into the Peace river district, going as far as Grouse, Alta., at the head of Lesser Slave lake. Though he followed the trails on the prairie, once the stamping grounds of fur traders and great herds of buffaloes, he met with no mishaps. He carried gasoline and supplies for the entire trip on the car. The best day's run was from Grouse to Dunvegan, 168 miles, the lowest being 90 miles in seven hours. He reports also that the Athabasca and Slave rivers are low and that steamer traffic is being held up for the present.

CLAIMS LISTER'S VICTORY

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—Hugh Todd, democratic state chairman, today claimed the election of Lister, democrat, over Hay, republican, for governor, by a plurality of 3,900. With 300 precincts yet to be heard from, Lister has a lead of 168.

SOCIETY

F. R. A. MAJESTIC PARTY

WINS APPROVAL

The F. R. A. made good their record of royal entertainers by the whole evening's entertainment that was given under the auspices of the order last evening in the form of a Majestic theater party in the first part of the evening and then the dancing party immediately following at the hall. The sold out sign in their reserved section was hung out by noon of that day and many more tickets could have been sold had there been seats. The evening's entertainment won the hearty approval of all those who were in attendance and speaks well for the future success of the following parties of this nature that are to be given during the show season. Dancing continued until 12:30.

TETZLAF AND WEIGENT

The marriage of Miss Bertha Tetzlaff and Mr. Joseph Weigent took place Thursday, November 7, at 8 p. m., at the German Lutheran parsonage, Rev. Gamm officiating. The bride wore a navy blue whipcord suit and a hat to match, and Miss Best wore a navy blue suit and a hat to match. A wedding supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Andre, 1727 Winnebago street. Mr. and Mrs. Weigent will reside at 1802 La Crosse street.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. J. B. Frisch entertained the Thursday 500 club at her home, 513 Cass street yesterday. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Herkins and Mrs. Ennison.

SEWING CLUB MEETS

The "Oh You Kid" Sewing club will meet tonight at the home of Miss Edna Hanson, 2422 Main street. All arrangements were made for an enjoyable evening.

IN HONOR OF MISS HOLCOMB

Miss Mary White and Miss Mirandy Evjen entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss White, in honor of Miss Blanche Holcomb, whose marriage will take place at an early date. The color scheme was pink. A large basket of pink roses tied with a large bow of pink chiffon centered the table. The guest of honor's place was marked with a bow of pink ribbon attached to her chair, pink satin slipper filled with rice and a pink wedding bell. At each guest's place was a dainty place card upon which was a white bell, hand wrought. The guests were the Misses Anne Ray, Beatrice Leising, Ethel Burnham, Edna Tarbox, Martha Lightbody, Gertrude Hultberg, Hazel Josten, Mrs. E. C. Bartel, Mrs. William Grimes and Mrs. R. E. Milham.

RECEPTION

One of the principal functions of the week was the reception given yesterday afternoon by Miss Hogan and Miss Lucy Hogan at their home, King and Eleventh streets. It was given in honor of Miss Beckington of New York, who is a guest of Miss Hogan, and Mrs. Keene of Tacoma, who is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. D. Cunningham. The handsome home was made more attractive by the liberal use of caryatids of various hues. The assisting ladies were Mrs. Northrup, Mrs. F. P. Cook and Mrs. Jessie Holway, who circulated throughout the rooms entertaining the guests. Mrs. W. R. Finch, Mrs. S. W. Anderson and Mrs. F. J. Smith presided at the table serving coffee and salad, ably assisted by Miss Helen Keene of Tacoma, Miss Margaret Crosby and Miss Katherine Martindale. Mrs. A. S. Espersen served ice cream, assisted by Miss Agnes Ballard, Mrs. Walton Losey and Miss Louise Easton. The strains of Andre's orchestra, which was stationed in the upper hall, was a delightful acquisition to the afternoon's pleasure.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

The ladies of the First M. E. church will give a chicken pie supper and bazaar at the church parlors November 22.

The DOCTOR'S

ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

a two ounce original package of Vilane powder, mix a level teaspoonful with an ounce of vaseline or lard and apply well up in the nostrils twice a day. Also use the following in connection with the above to thoroughly cleanse the nostrils: Use one-half teaspoonful of the Vilane powder to a pint of warm water, snuff the water through the nostrils several times a day and your catarrh should soon be cured. To prevent a return this should be used occasionally.

"Tom M." writes: "I am only twenty years old, but my hair is falling out very rapidly. My scalp is covered with dandruff. What can I get to cure it?"

Answer: To cure dandruff and stop falling hair use plain yellow minoy. This you can get at any well-stocked drug store in 4 oz. jars, and if used regularly it will cure any scalp disease and prevent premature baldness. Many people have reported a cure by using two or three applications.

"J. W." writes: "I should be the happiest woman in the world if I could find a true remedy to help me gain flesh. I have regular features, but I am so thin that I am homely. Can you give me a prescription?"

Answer: I receive daily so many gratifying letters from users of three grain hypo-nuclene tablets. These little tablets can be bought at any up-to-date drug store in sealed packages. Full directions are given. I advise that you begin taking them at once and continue their use for several months and you will gain flesh. Many people report that a two months' treatment will increase their weight from 15 to 30 pounds. Hypo-nuclene tablets will also improve your complexion, giving you rosy cheeks and lips and an increased sparkle to the eyes.

"American Girl" writes: "For some years I have been troubled with rheumatism. I have tried almost every 'cure,' but they did not help me."

Answer: The best known prescription for the cure of rheumatism is: Iodide of potassium, 2 drams; sodium salicylate, 4 drams; wine of colchicum, 1/2 oz.; comp. essence cardiol, 1 oz.; comp. fluid balmwort, 1 oz.; and syrup sarcaparilla, 5 oz. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful at meal time and at bed time, and you will not only be relieved, but cured, if you continue its use for a short time.

"Frank S." writes: "I would like to have the formula for a reliable cough cure as I have a very severe cough which is becoming very annoying."

Answer: The best remedy that I know of for coughs and colds is made by mixing a 2 1/2 oz. bottle of concentrated essence mentho-laxene with a home-made sugar syrup. You will find full directions on the bottle how to make and use. This will make a full pint of the finest and cheapest cough medicine obtainable.—Advertisement.

"Helen" writes: "My nostrils and throat are badly affected with catarrh and my breath is very offensive. I also suffer a great deal with headache and pain in my eyes. Can anything be done to help me?"

Answer: Antiseptic Vilane powder has been prescribed with great success and the number of letters received daily from the hundreds of grateful people who have been cured of catarrh would indicate its curative value. Get from the druggist

T. R. WINS BY 5,000

ROOSEVELT BEATS WILSON OUT FOR SOUTH DAKOTA BY A NARROW MARGIN

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 8.

Roosevelt's plurality in the state over Governor Wilson will approximate 5,000 votes.

With democratic headquarters at Yankton still claiming a chance for Johnson and with Chairman Sherwood of the republican state committee claiming the election of Byrne for governor by 4,400, indications point to Byrne's election by a majority of about 2,000.

Returns received thus far on governor show a total of 27,672 for Byrne to 25,830 for Johnson. The tendency of the belated returns which are coming from the distant precincts indicate the usual republican vote, which seems to have made the election of Byrne certain.

The democrats gain a few members in the state legislature, but the republicans will be left with a large majority, insuring the election of Thomas Sterling, the successful republican candidate, at the June primary, to the United States senate.

TEXAS COUNTY ALL TAFT'S

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 8.—Texas submits what it believes to be the champion Taft county of the country. In Zapata county, situated far down on the Rio Grande border, 375 votes were cast, and everyone was for Taft electors; all but five voters in the county are Mexican Americans.

Pretty Full.

"McLush has been arrested for drunkenness and wants you to bail him out." "Bail him out!" ejaculated Colonel Pepper, who had heard the remark indistinctly. "Good gracious, is he that full?"—Exchange.

POTENT LITTLE THINGS.

Springs are little things, but they are sources of large streams. A helm is a little thing, but it governs the course of the ship. A bridle bit is a little thing, but see its use and power! Nails and pegs are little things, but they hold the parts of large buildings together. A word, a look, a frown, are all little things, but powerful for good or evil.

HAS WILSON'S OLD ROOM AT SCHOOL

Particular Princeton Student Who Painted Out Next President's Initials Disconsolate

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 8.—Val-couton Ellicott, whose home is in Baltimore and who is a member of Princeton's class of 1915, has soared into prominence in the university through reflected glory. He is the most sought after of all the students. And all because, through the lottery arrangements by which rooms at the university are assigned, he now occupies the rooms in which Thomas Woodrow Wilson, Princeton, 1879, studied and loafed through his four years of college life.

The study and bedroom are on the second floor overlooking the site of the battle of Princeton, beyond which is the point where Washington crossed the Delaware. The rooms bear no evidence that President-elect Wilson ever occupied them. Young Ellicott, who is inclined to be somewhat fussy about his personal belongings, objected to the many initials cut in the pasteboard of the fireplace and other spots about the room. So, after the room had been assigned to him, he sent for a painter and a few pounds of putty and had the initials all covered up and the retiring department decorated in his favorite colors.

Today he wanders about disconsolate because he cannot remember whether the initials of the next president were among those sacrificed to his aesthetic tastes.

Ellicott's mother is the president of the Women's Wilson and Marshall league of Baltimore and recently entertained Mrs. Wilson and her daughters in her home in the monument city.

BABE KILLED BY CAR

MARINETTE, Wis., Nov. 8.—The 4 year old son of Mandel Katz was hit by a street car Thursday night and fatally hurt. His head was badly cut.

MOB HANGS MURDERER

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 8.—Geo. Baker, who was recently arrested at Dawson, charged with the murder of his wife and father-in-law and was taken from the county jail at Steele early today and hanged by a mob.

All the Vowels in One Word.

There are but six words in the English language which contain all the vowels in regular order—viz, abstemious, arsenious, anenious, facetious, materious and tragedious. There is but one word which contains them in regular reverse order, and that word is duolateral. Besides the above there are 149 English words which contain all the vowels in irregular order. Twelve of these begin with the letter a, seven with b, twenty-three with c, sixteen with d, fourteen with e, four with f, seven with g, one with h, six with i, two with j, two with m, two with n, two with o, thirteen with p, one with q, five with r, nine with s, two with t, fifteen with u and six with v.

ENDURANCE.

"What every man in the world is looking for is the sense of having the mastery over life. But I tell you, my boy, there is only one thing that really gives a man this coveted assurance."

"And that is?"

"Our power to endure. That's it. You are safe only when you can stand anything that can happen to you. Then, and then only, are you really safe. Endurance is the measure of a man."

ASK CHILDREN ABOUT HEALTH

Minnesota School Pupils to Explain the Routine of Their Daily Life

Do you eat breakfast every day? Do you drink coffee or tea? Do you have your bedroom window open or shut at night? Do you own a toothbrush?

These and other pertinent questions are to be answered by the children in the public schools of Minnesota. They form part of a "Health Grading Outline" prepared by Dr. Ernest B. Hoag, special director of school hygiene for the state, whereby teachers and school nurses may learn in the most direct manner possible the physical condition of the children entrusted to their care. "Rational conservation of the mental and physical health of our school children" is the ultimate ideal of this and other current health projects reported to the United States bureau of education.

The appointment of a special state director for school hygiene, and the institution of a searching but non-technical health survey by teachers and school nurses, are important contributions to the school-hygiene movement that is now steadily making its way throughout the country.

The Scented Court.

"The scented court" was the name by which the court of Louis XV. was known throughout Europe on account of the rage for perfume which then prevailed in France. The expenditure of Mme. de Pompadour for this one branch of her toilet amounted to $100,000 annually. It became the fashion for the host or hostess of a great entertainment to signalize to their guests what particular perfume was to be employed for scenting their rooms on the night for which the invitations were issued, and they were expected to use no other, so that the delicate effect of a unity of odors might be produced. At court a different perfume was presented for each day of the week.

An Arabian Legend.

The Arabians had a tradition that when the devil started forth from his own place to the garden of Eden he was too lazy to walk and begged all the animals, one after another, to carry him. All refused except the serpent, which was then a quadruped and the most beautiful of all beasts. Yielding to the entreaties of Satan, the serpent took up the devil on its back and carried him the rest of the way, no one knows how far, and after the consequences of the devil's entry into the garden became apparent the angels were commanded to look up the serpent and punish it, so Michael cut off its legs, and it was doomed henceforth to travel about flat on the ground.

Worse Than Mad.

"A friend and I once passed a theater in Washington," said an old time actor, "just as the performance had let out. My friend met an acquaintance who was coming out of the theater. We were ignorant as to the attraction, so my friend asked his acquaintance what sort of a performance he had been witnessing. 'Hamlet,' said the acquaintance. 'Ah, 'Hamlet,' said my friend. 'I suppose that you are now filled with all sorts of conjectures as to whether Hamlet was really mad.' 'The Hamlet tonight,' said the acquaintance, 'left no doubt on that point. He was not alone mad. He was frantic. There weren't a hundred people in the house.'"

COLORADO DEMOCRATIC

TWO SENATORS TO BE ELECTED WILL BOTH BE FOLLOWERS OF WILSON STAND-ARD

DENVER, Col., Nov. 8.—Returns from two-thirds of the precincts in the state only serve to increase the plurality in Colorado for Wilson for president and Ammons, democrat, for governor. Wilson's plurality will be 40,000 over Taft, who ran second with Roosevelt a close third. The entire democratic ticket ran up close to the leaders. Of the 100 members of the general assembly the democrats have elected 65, assuring two democratic United States senators.

Giving Pa a Treat.

Mr. Smith had the habit of lighting his cigar after dinner, puffing it for awhile and then laying it down on the ash tray. Later he would relight it and finish his smoke. Often three or four unfinished cigars would be on the tray.

One day his small son, sitting near by, watched his father light one of the short variety and said:

"How do you like that one, papa?" "This, my son, is a very good cigar," replied the father, blowing long puffs into the air.

"I thought you'd like it, papa. I found it in the gutter outside."—London Mail.

The Ancient Egyptian.

The question, "Of what race were the ancient Egyptians?" has never been satisfactorily disposed of, but we may be sure that they were not negroes. They were not black, nor was their hair "kinky"—therefore they belonged to some other than the negro race. They certainly were not Caucasians, nor were they of the Mongolian or yellow breed of men. The builders of the pyramids were probably of Arabic stock or of stock in which Arabic predominated, although, as has been intimated, it is by no means settled as yet as to just where the old Egyptians are to be placed in the human scale.—New York American.

When a man does talk sense at least half the people don't recognize it.

INDIANA STRONG FOR WILSON

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Complete but unofficial returns from all of the 92 counties of Indiana give Wilson 289,887; Roosevelt, 160,903; Taft, 151,157. Wilson's plurality, 118,984. For governor, Ralston, 208,103; Beveridge, 163,046; Rurbin, 144,171. Ralston's plurality, 45,057.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICAN

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8.—The latest returns today indicated that the republicans controlled the state legislature on joint ballot and would be able to re-elect William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids to the United States senate. However, their margin was very small.

BOB'S BROTHER RE-ELECTED

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—William L. La Follette, brother of Senator La Follette, was re-elected to congress in the Third district.

Naturally, an actress thinks she's a star when she is praised to the skies.

AL PALZER WEDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A very beautiful woman appeared before the judge of special sessions court today and demanded permission to withdraw a warrant she had secured against Al Palzer, the prize fighter, and heavyweight championship aspirant, a fortnight ago. She displayed a marriage certificate showing that she and Palzer had been married on November 5 in the German Evangelical church of Hoboken. She was formerly Miss Ethel Fritz of Coystville, N. J.

T. R. CARRIES SOUTH DAKOTA

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 8.—With the governorship yet in doubt, incomplete returns from 38 out of 61 counties in South Dakota give Col. Roosevelt 24,908; Wilson 21,267. Partial returns from 28 counties give Johnson, democrat, for governor, 33,472; Byrne, republican, 33,742. Both democrats and republicans claim complete returns will give their candidate victory.

"IT WAS RECOMMENDED TO ME BY MY DOCTOR"

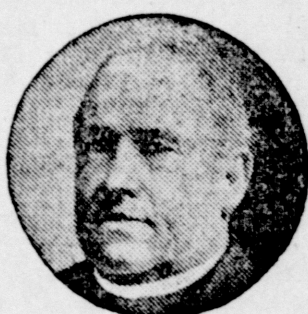

The Reason Why So Many People Take Father John's Medicine

When Mrs. C. H. Dunkel, of 33 Linden street, Reading, Pa., was asked why she took Father John's Medicine for her cough, she replied, "It was recommended by my doctor." The same question was asked and a similar answer returned by the following:—Mrs. A. E. Hixon, 30 Larkin street, Bangor, Me.; Henry F. Villet, 25 Crown street, Meriden, Conn.; Frank Poff, Hallam, Pa.; Miss Catherine Boyle, 45 Blackburn street, Fairhaven, Mass.; Charles L. Brown, Irving, Ill., as well as a great many others.

Physicians, hospitals and other institutions all over the world endorse the merits of Father John's Medicine because they know of its history and curative power.

It cures colds, coughs and throat and lung troubles in the natural way by driving the impurities out of the body and at the same time its pure food elements make flesh and strength for those who are weak and run down. Not a patent medicine but a doctor's prescription free from alcohol and poisonous drugs in any form. Get a bottle today.

If you have any difficulty in getting Father John's Medicine from your druggist write to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass., enclosing $1.00 for a large bottle by express prepaid.

MOST SICKNESS COMES FROM WEAK, INACTIVE KIDNEYS

Recent Reports Show Hundreds Suffer With Kidney Troubles and Don't Know It

There are scores of nervous, tired, run-down people throughout the city, suffering with pains in the back and sides, dizzy spells, weaknesses of the bladder, (frequently causing annoyance at night) who fail to realize the seriousness of their troubles until such conditions as chronic rheumatism, bladder troubles, dropsy, diabetes or even Bright's disease result. All this is due to weak, inactive kidneys. The kidneys are the filters of the blood, and no one can be well and healthy unless the kidneys work properly. It is even more important than that the bowels move regularly. If you suffer with such symptoms don't neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of the new discovery, Croxone, which costs but a trifle, and commence its use at once. When you have taken a few doses, you will be surprised how differently you will feel.

Croxone cures the worst cases of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism, because it removes the cause. Pills, tablets and other remedies merely give temporary relief at the best. Croxone cleans out the kidneys, and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, that lodge in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the bladder, and quickly effects a permanent, positive lasting cure.

You will find Croxone different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, it is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Chicago Grain Review
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The sharp rally in wheat futures in Liverpool did not cause the market here to lose its equilibrium today. There were enough miscellaneous changes to lift quotations on the start but fractional gains were made after that. Ideal weather conditions prevailed everywhere but northwest receipts in slightly lessened volume.

Corn shorts squared accounts early until the market opened a shade lower. The buying movement in the wheat pit extended to corn and prices rallied followed by a later decline. Oats futures gained in the early trading and continued firm throughout the day.

Provisions dropped to lower prices after a strong opening.

Fit Your Gown
Over This Corset

That your new gowns may show your figure at its best and to insure a perfect fitting garment, a new corset should be purchased and the fitting done over it.

We recommend G-D Justrite corsets to all women, regardless of their type of figure, as the range of models cover all types from the slender to full figures, and from the shortest to the tallest.

G-D Justrite corsets possess exclusive features which are highly commended by women who understand the value of lines in a corset.

We carry the complete line.

SPOTLIGHTS

If the producing manager knew what the theatre going public want, there would be fewer failures and poor shows; but as he is invariably the last person who really knows what they want and when by some freak of fortune he does give them what they want, it is said, "he has produced a success." When the fact is taken into consideration that in a theatrical year there will be fewer than ten real successes, the word success takes on a new meaning. "The House of a Thousand Candles," the play billed to appear at La Crosse theatre on Sunday, Nov. 10, matinee and night, can truly be called a success, as it was first produced four seasons ago, at the Hackett theatre, New York, where it ran for a solid year and has been before the public ever since. Everywhere it has met with success. The play is from Meredith Nicholson's novel by the same name, written into play form by Geo. Middleton. Mr. Primrose, the producer, has secured a complete scenic equipment and an excellent cast.

MAY ROBSON

May Robson is a true comedienne of rare grace and charm which is evidenced in the portrayal of "Aunt Mary." Her methods are clean-cut and without the efforts to secure a laugh at the expense of a good taste, nor does she fly from one extreme to the other. Her acting is consistent, maintaining rigidly the character even to the curtain falls. Miss Robson will appear at the La Crosse theatre Tuesday, Nov. 12, in "A Night Out" of which she is co-author. The story in the play is decidedly interesting and unconventional. Mrs. Winnifred Woodbury, one of those fortunate women who never grow old, is passing the summer at her beautiful country place on the Hudson, not far from New York. Her daughter, Mrs. Marie Haslam and her two grandsons, Jack and Paul, with her. Between Mrs. Haslam and "Grandmums," as Mrs. Woodbury is affectionately called, there is a strange contrast. Granmums is always merry, bright and full of life. Her daughter Marie is solemn, strict and Puritanical, traits she inherits from her father. The boys, as is often the case by force of heredity, resemble in temperament and disposition their grandmother. Their mother rules them with a rod of iron, denies them the usual innocent pleasures of boyhood, and they naturally rebel. They have more than once slipped out of the house and gone to the city to visit a jolly Bohemian sort of restaurant, where there is good food, fun, music and excellent dancing. Granmums discovers this and begs the boys to take her with them just once, so she can see for herself, if it is really a proper place for them to visit. They finally consent. Unfortunately, on the night of their visit, the place is raided for selling liquor after midnight, and the names of the boys get into the papers. Troubles thicken about Granmums and the boys. A thousand dollar bond has been stolen from Granmums' safety deposit box. As she has entrusted the key to them the boys must certainly be guilty. Complications are piled up and the net grows closer and closer around them. How it is all finally cleared up and the boys again enjoy Granmums' confidence and gain the love of two charming girls, furnishes a story replete with comedy and interest. An amusing sub-plot is furnished by the alliance formed by Granmums and the two boys to save Marie from a palavering bad fortune hunter who believes Mrs. Haslam to be rich.

While comedy prevails, there is also an excellent lesson for parents and careful study of the interesting question of heredity.

PORTLAND PLANS TO BUILD A MARKET

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—Portland will build a public market. Bids will be asked for at once and construction started as soon as possible. The building inspector has completed the plans and specifications and the city council is going to push the project through as speedily as may be.

The building will cost about $17,500 and will be financed out of the general fund, but this amount will be paid back if the public market bonds, to be voted for next month, are issued, as it is expected they will be.

The building will be of the most modern construction. The floors will be of cement, the exterior of brick and the interior of tile. There will be running water and electric lights and it is expected this innovation will do much to reduce the living cost to Portland people.

After a man once holds a public office he is hardly ever again willing to waste the time necessary for earning a living by working.

GREGG A PLASTERER

NAP PITCHER TO BE CONTRACTOR IN EDMONTON DURING THE WINTER MONTHS

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—Vean Gregg, star pitcher for the Cleveland American league team, arrived in Edmonton today, carrying a contract from the Naps for 1913 and a kit of plasterer's tools. He was accompanied by his father, formerly of Lewiston, Idaho. He will go into the contracting business here during the winter and early spring months, returning to Cleveland in time for the training season. Gregg started his professional career in the northwestern states, playing with Spokane in 1909, when he was caught by "Stub" Spencer. He was with Portland in the Pacific coast league in 1910, when his work attracted the attention of the Cleveland scouts and he was grabbed by the American leaguers. His pitching in 1911 was the sensation of Dan Johnson's circuit. Gregg led the American league that year, but did not equal his performance last season, due chiefly to a sore arm early in the summer. He was in good form at the close.

PERU INDIANS ABUSED

ENGLISH CANON DECLARES POWERS SHOULD TAKE STEPS TO SEE RUBBER WORKERS ARE NOT EXTERMINATED

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—Canon Henley Henson of Westminster Abbey, London, Eng., who was in Edmonton yesterday, said in speaking of the conditions under which the Indians work on the rubber plantations in Peru, that England and the United States will have to intervene to save the tribe from extermination. Ten thousand natives are engaged in the industry, he added, and they are beaten and maimed, improperly fed and clothed and subjected to all kinds of abuse. They are compelled to work when sick. Continuing, he said: "Both England and the United States must look into this matter without delay and endeavor to improve the conditions under which these people work. It is a deplorable condition and must be stopped. It is more, it is shocking and a blot on our boasted advances in civilization."

BUYER TO BLAME

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—That much of the responsibility for bad city milk may be due to the carelessness of the consumer who does not take proper care of the milk after its delivery by the milkman, is the opinion of A. C. Baer of the dairy department of the University of Wisconsin.

During a month's investigation in Milwaukee, Mr. Baer says he often started out with milkmen at 3 a. m. on a summer morning and rode their routes with them. About 7 o'clock they would return and see still bottles they had delivered still standing in the open, not even protected from the sun. The significance of this will be seen when it is mentioned that at from seventy to eighty degrees F. the bacteria in milk multiply at the rate of thousands per hour, while at forty degrees they scarcely increase at all.

BISHOP ARRIVES

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—Venerable Archdeacon Robins, bishop designate of the diocese of Athabasca, where he will have charge of the missions of the Anglican church in a vast territory of north country, has come to Edmonton with Mrs. Robins. The consecration will take place at the cathedral in Winnipeg on November 30. The bishop-elect, accompanied by Mrs. Robins, A. F. Fugl, factor of the Hudson's Bay company, and J. L. Cote, member of the provincial parliament, visited every mission in the diocese last summer, traveling by lake steamers and canoes and overland by wagon. He is optimistic over conditions and the future of the district of Athabasca, which is being rapidly settled by homeseekers from various parts of this country and Europe.

PERU INDIANS ABUSED

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 8.—Canon Henley Henson of Westminster Abbey, London, Eng., who was in Edmonton yesterday, said in speaking of the conditions under which the Indians work on the rubber plantations in Peru, that England and the United States will have to intervene to save the tribe from extermination. Ten thousand natives are engaged in the industry, he added, and they are beaten and maimed, improperly fed and clothed and subjected to all kinds of abuse. They are compelled to work when sick. Continuing, he said: "Both England and the United States must look into this matter without delay and endeavor to improve the conditions under which these people work. It is a deplorable condition and must be stopped. It is more, it is shocking and a blot on our boasted advances in civilization."

BUYER TO BLAME

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 8.—That much of the responsibility for bad city milk may be due to the carelessness of the consumer who does not take proper care of the milk after its delivery by the milkman, is the opinion of A. C. Baer of the dairy department of the University of Wisconsin.

During a month's investigation in Milwaukee, Mr. Baer says he often started out with milkmen at 3 a. m. on a summer morning and rode their routes with them. About 7 o'clock they would return and see still bottles they had delivered still standing in the open, not even protected from the sun. The significance of this will be seen when it is mentioned that at from seventy to eighty degrees F. the bacteria in milk multiply at the rate of thousands per hour, while at forty degrees they scarcely increase at all.

RUSS GRAFTER JAILED

MOST BRAZEN CROOK IN RUSSIA STARTS TO SERVE A THREE YEAR SENTENCE

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—Convicted by a special court martial of operating the most brazen system of graft in the history of the Russian empire, Major Gen. Ogorovitch has begun serving a three years prison sentence, having in addition forfeited his rank and various decorations. Known as the "plunging general," it is estimated that during the ten months he acted as chief of the military transport service in Manchuria at the time of the Japanese war, he received in "commissions" from favored contractors more than a million dollars. Such was his influence, however, that he was able to stave off prosecution until a few weeks ago.

It was shown at the trial that he bought at fancy prices thousands of decrepit horses which died shortly after delivery. On one occasion he paid transport contractors $7.50 per pound for carrying salt to a point where it could be purchased in the open market at 50 cents a pound. Food contractors in the general's ring customarily received prices three times as high as those who refused to "come across," and he even threatened some of the latter with deportation.

OCEAN LETTER NEWEST

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH SERVICE BETWEEN SHIPS AND MAINLAND IS LATEST INNOVATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The "ocean letter," a new delayed wireless telegraph service, is the latest thing, since Cyrus Field laid the first trans-Atlantic cable, in speedy communication between the two continents. Consul General A. M. Thackara, at Berlin, in a report to the state department describes the new system which has been inaugurated by the Telefunken Wireless Telegraph company. The method is as follows:

An outbound traveler on a German vessel, wishing to communicate with friends or business connections at home, writes a letter of 30 words or more which is transmitted by wireless from a vessel on which the traveler is to the nearest homeward-bound German vessel, where it is reduced to writing, placed in an envelope and mailed when the vessel first reaches port.

The service was first tried on the steamers of the Hamburg-American line plying to and from South America. The charge is $1.19 for the first thirty words, and two and one-half cents for each additional word. There is a further charge of 12 cents for postage and conveyance.

Growing Children
Need Good Bowels

Give a Mild Laxative Occasionally to Insure Bowel Action

As a child grows older it requires more and more personal attention from the mother, and as the functions of the bowels are of the utmost importance to health great attention should be paid to them.

Diet is of great importance, and the mother should watch the effect of certain foods. A food will constipate one and not another, and so we have a healthy food like eggs causing biliousness to thousands, and a wholesome fruit like bananas constipating many. It is also to be considered that the child is growing, and great changes are taking place in the young man or woman. The system has not yet settled itself to its later routine.

A very valuable remedy at this stage, and one which every growing boy and girl should be given often or occasionally according to the individual circumstances, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a laxative and tonic combined, so mild that it is given to little babies, and yet equally effective in the most robust constitution. At the first sign of a tendency to constipation give a small dose of Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and prompt action will follow in the morning. It not only acts on the stomach and bowels but its tonic properties build up and strengthen the system generally, which is an opinion shared by the mother of Alfred Edison Spence, Reeds Springs, Mo., and Mr. George A. Fisher, 631 Parker Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., and thousands of others.

Its use will teach you to avoid cathartics, salts and pills as they are too harsh for the majority and their effect is only temporary. Syrup Pepsin brings temporary results, and it can be conveniently obtained of any nearby druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 413 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.
